

This is Bob. Bob is a home sharing host.

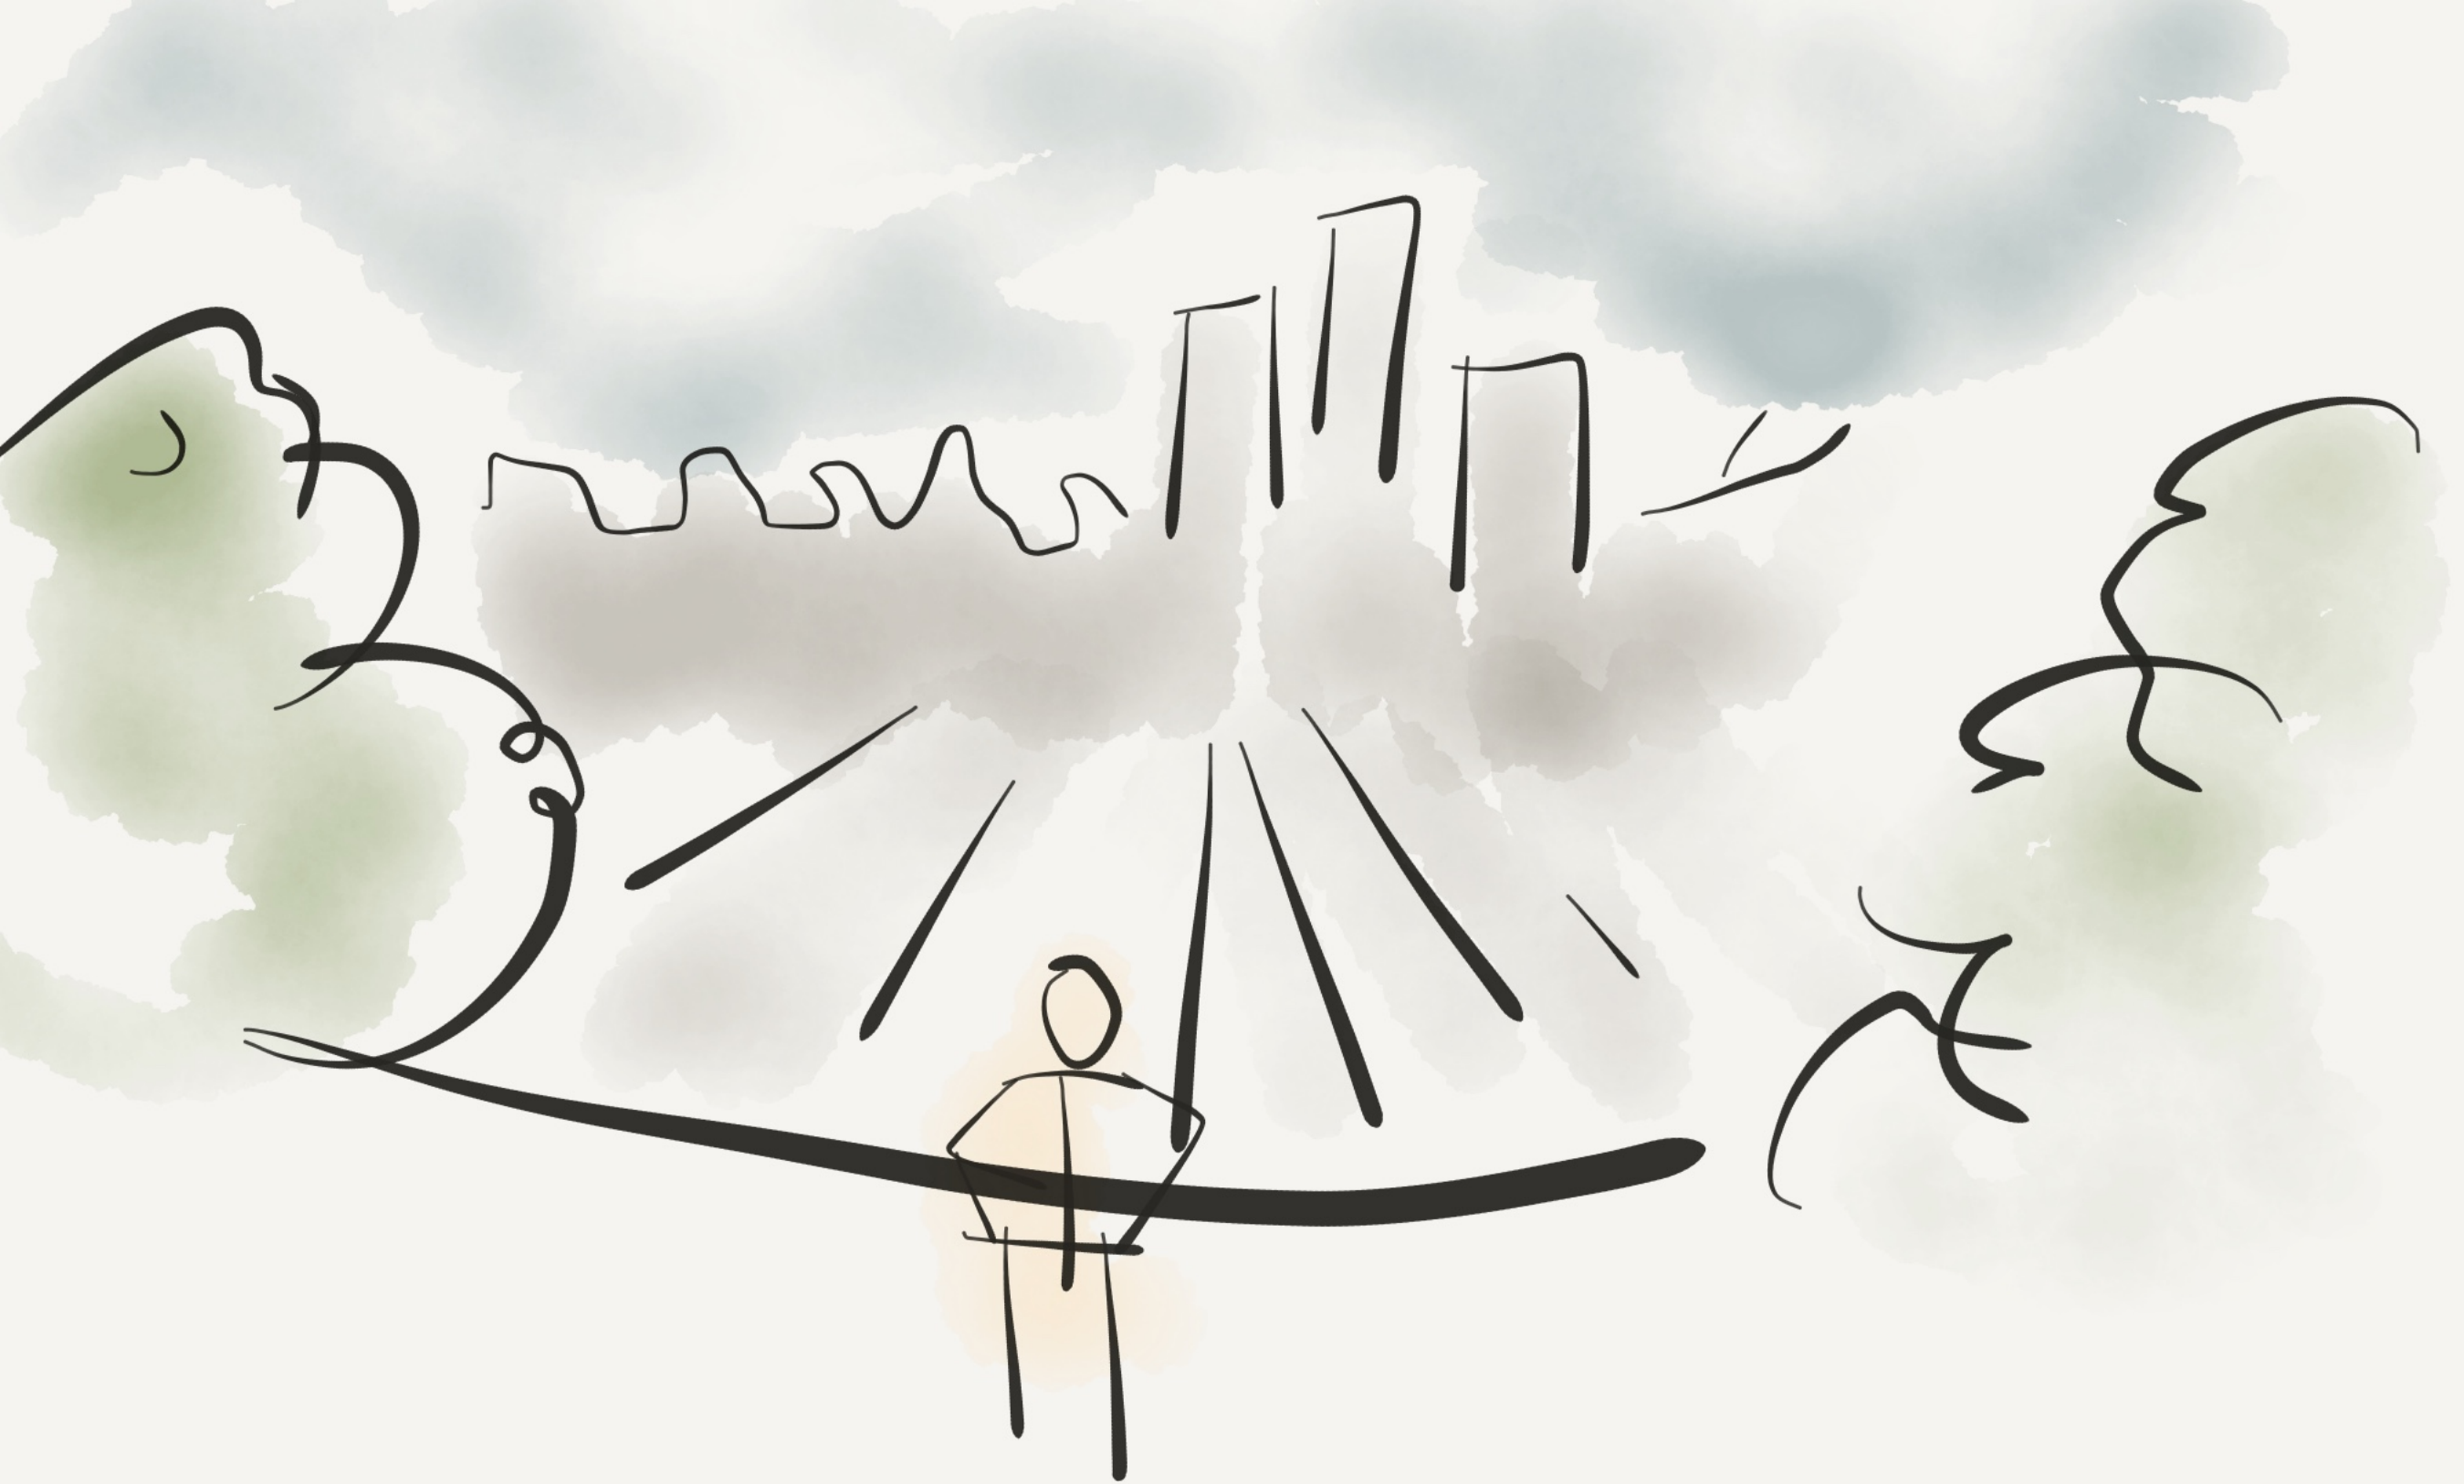

This is Bob's house.

His neighborhood.

His favorite coffee shop.

And that view overlooking the city...

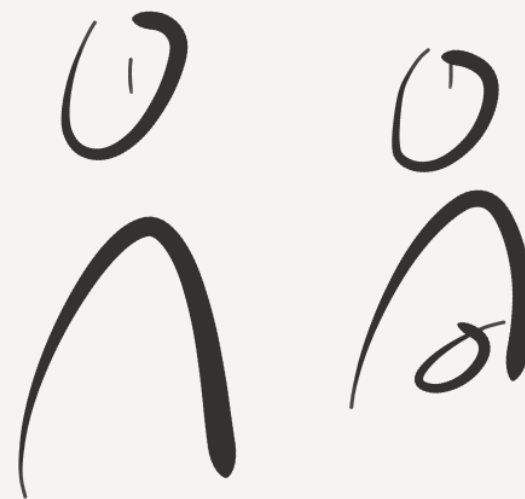

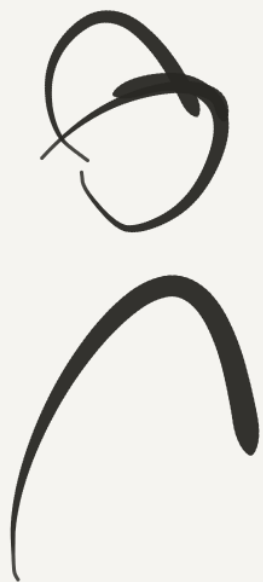

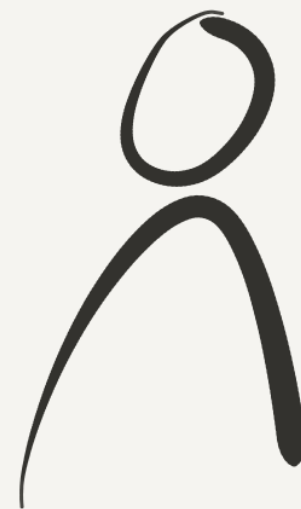

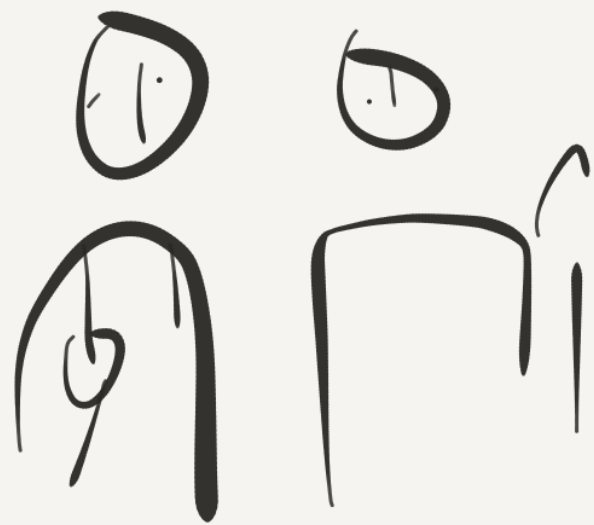

Bob loves his city.

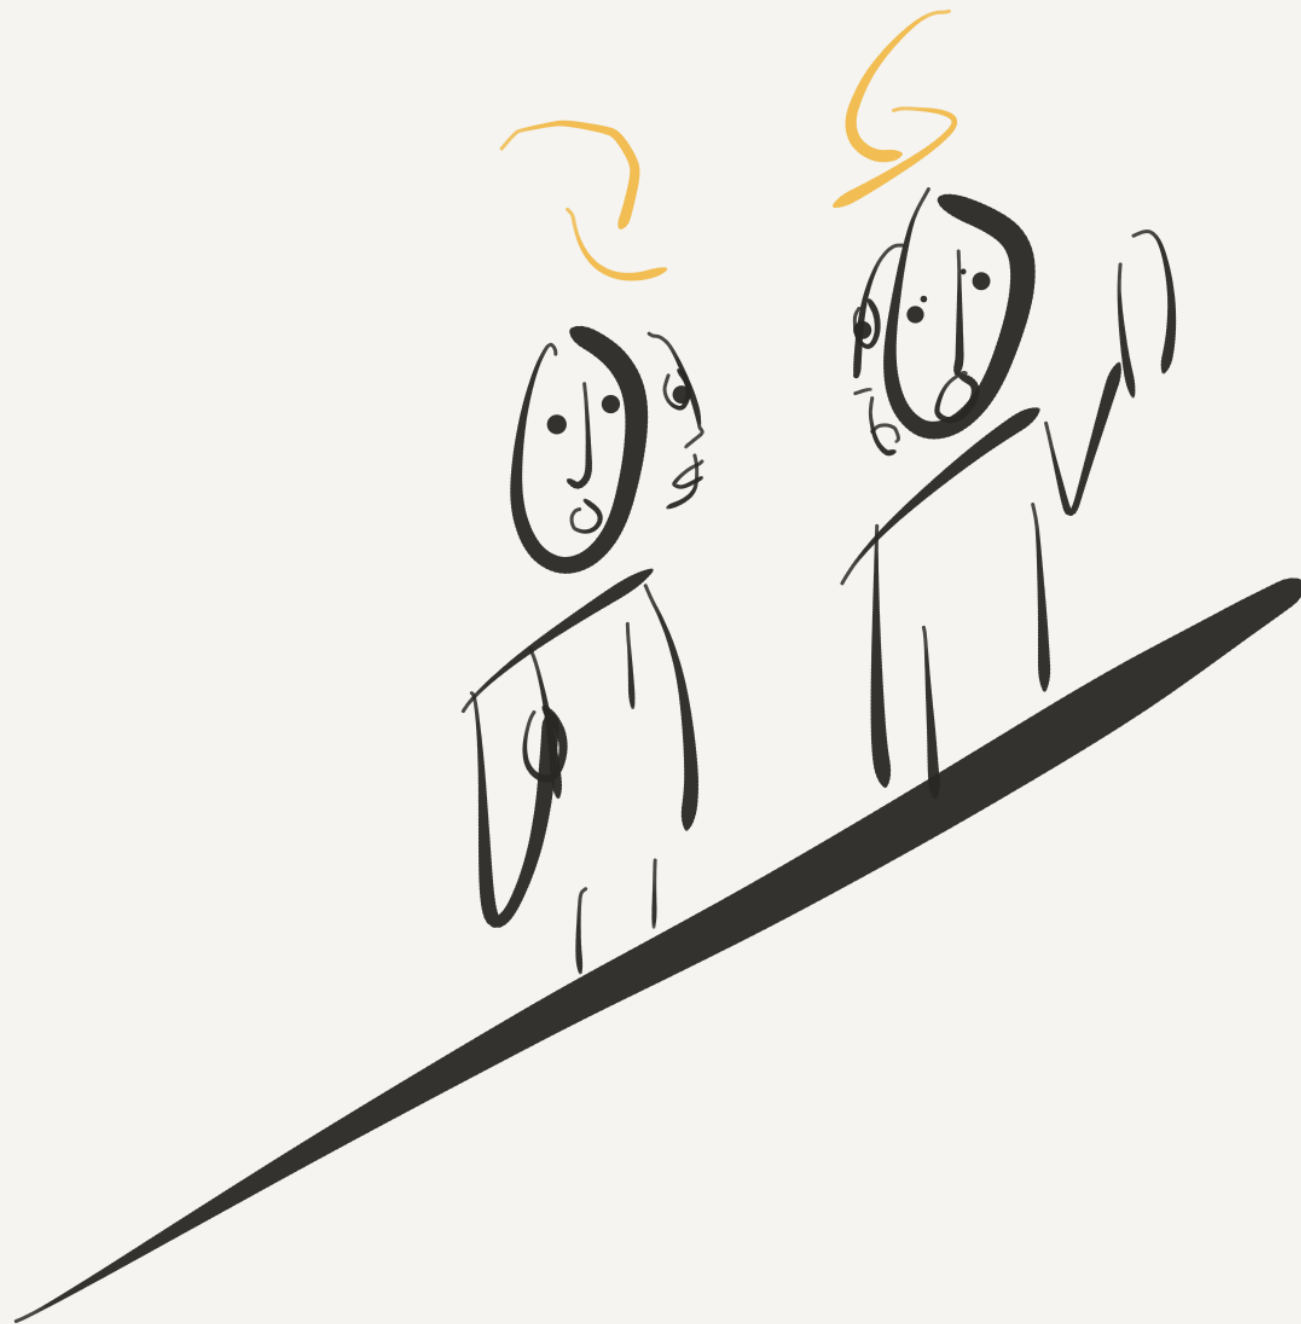

As a homesharing host,

Bob's had a few guests.

Actually...a lot of guests.

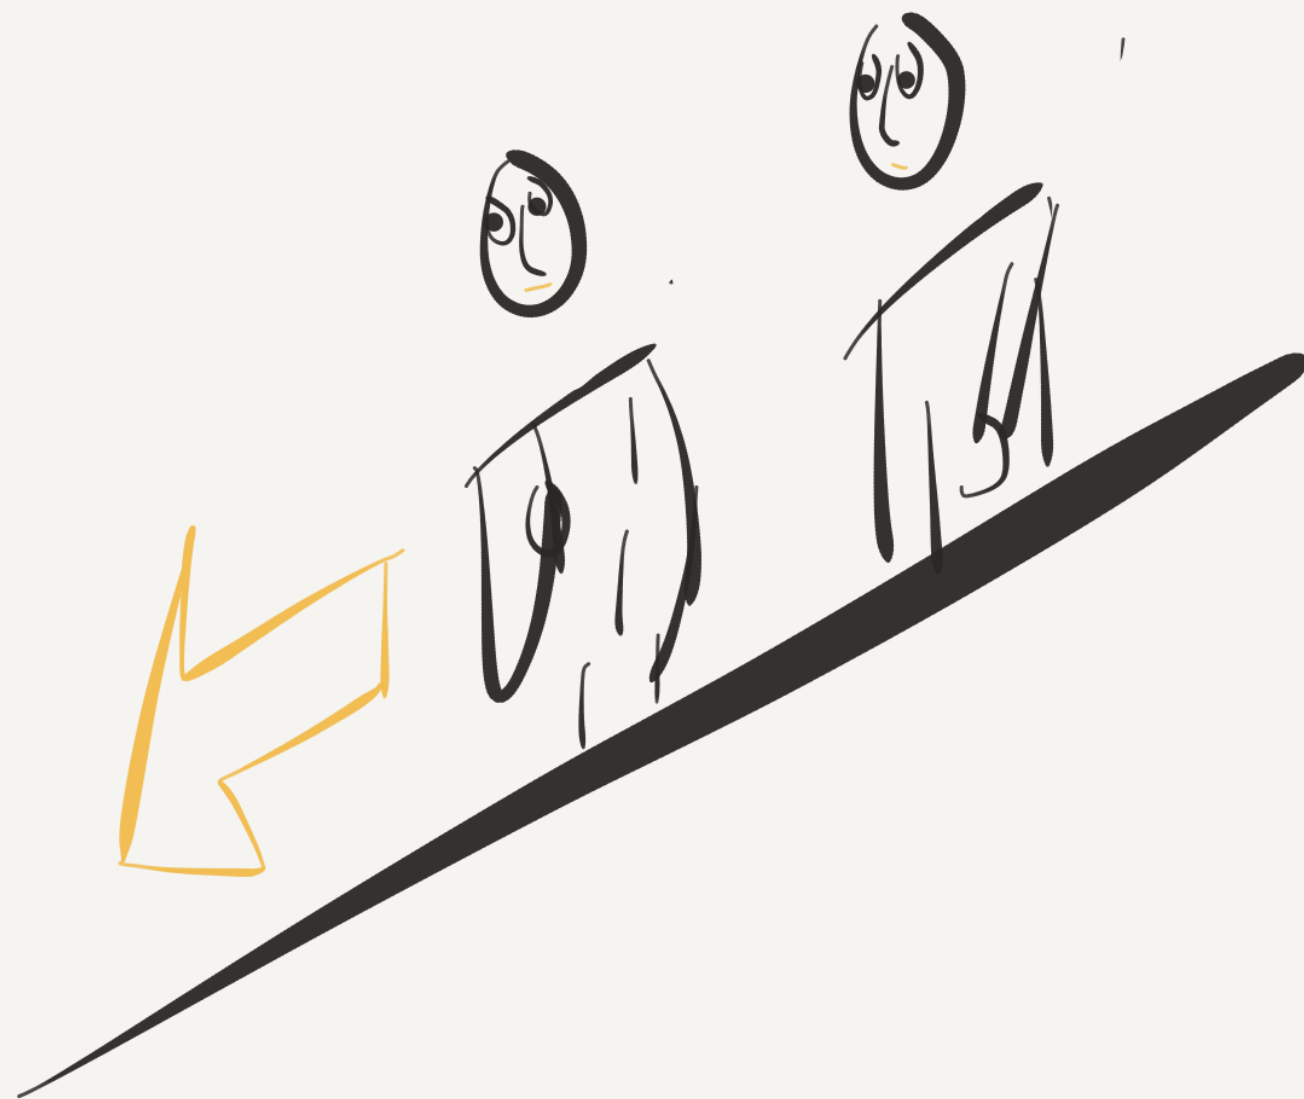

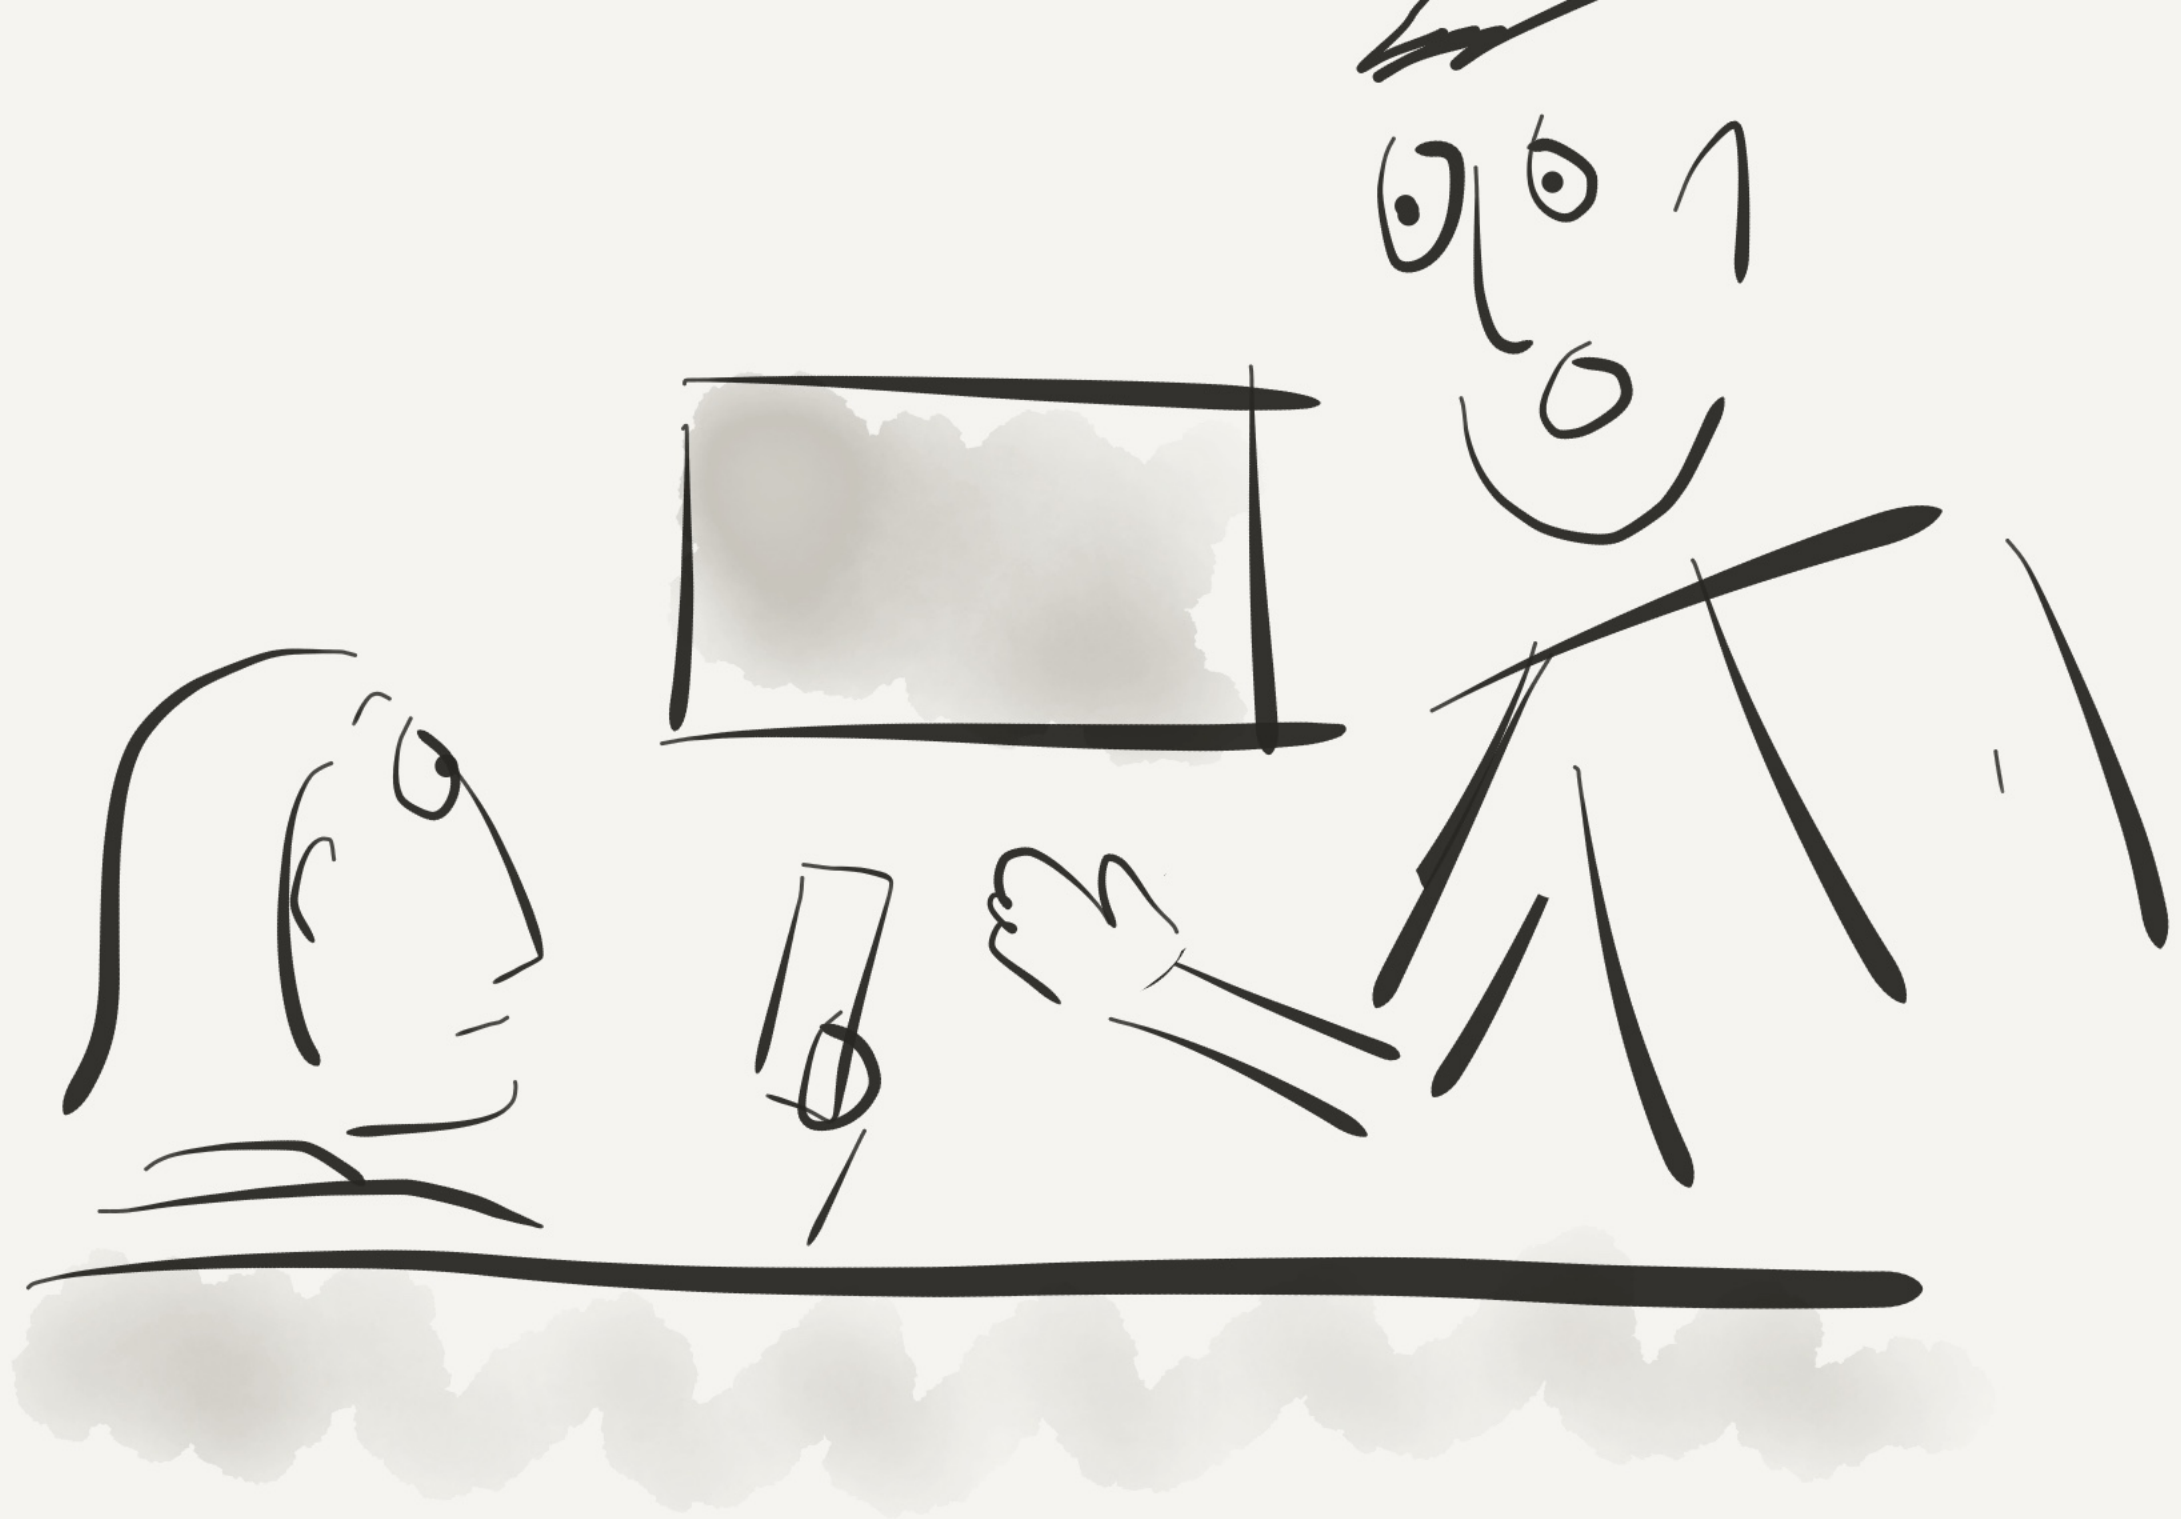

They.....ALWAYS got lost

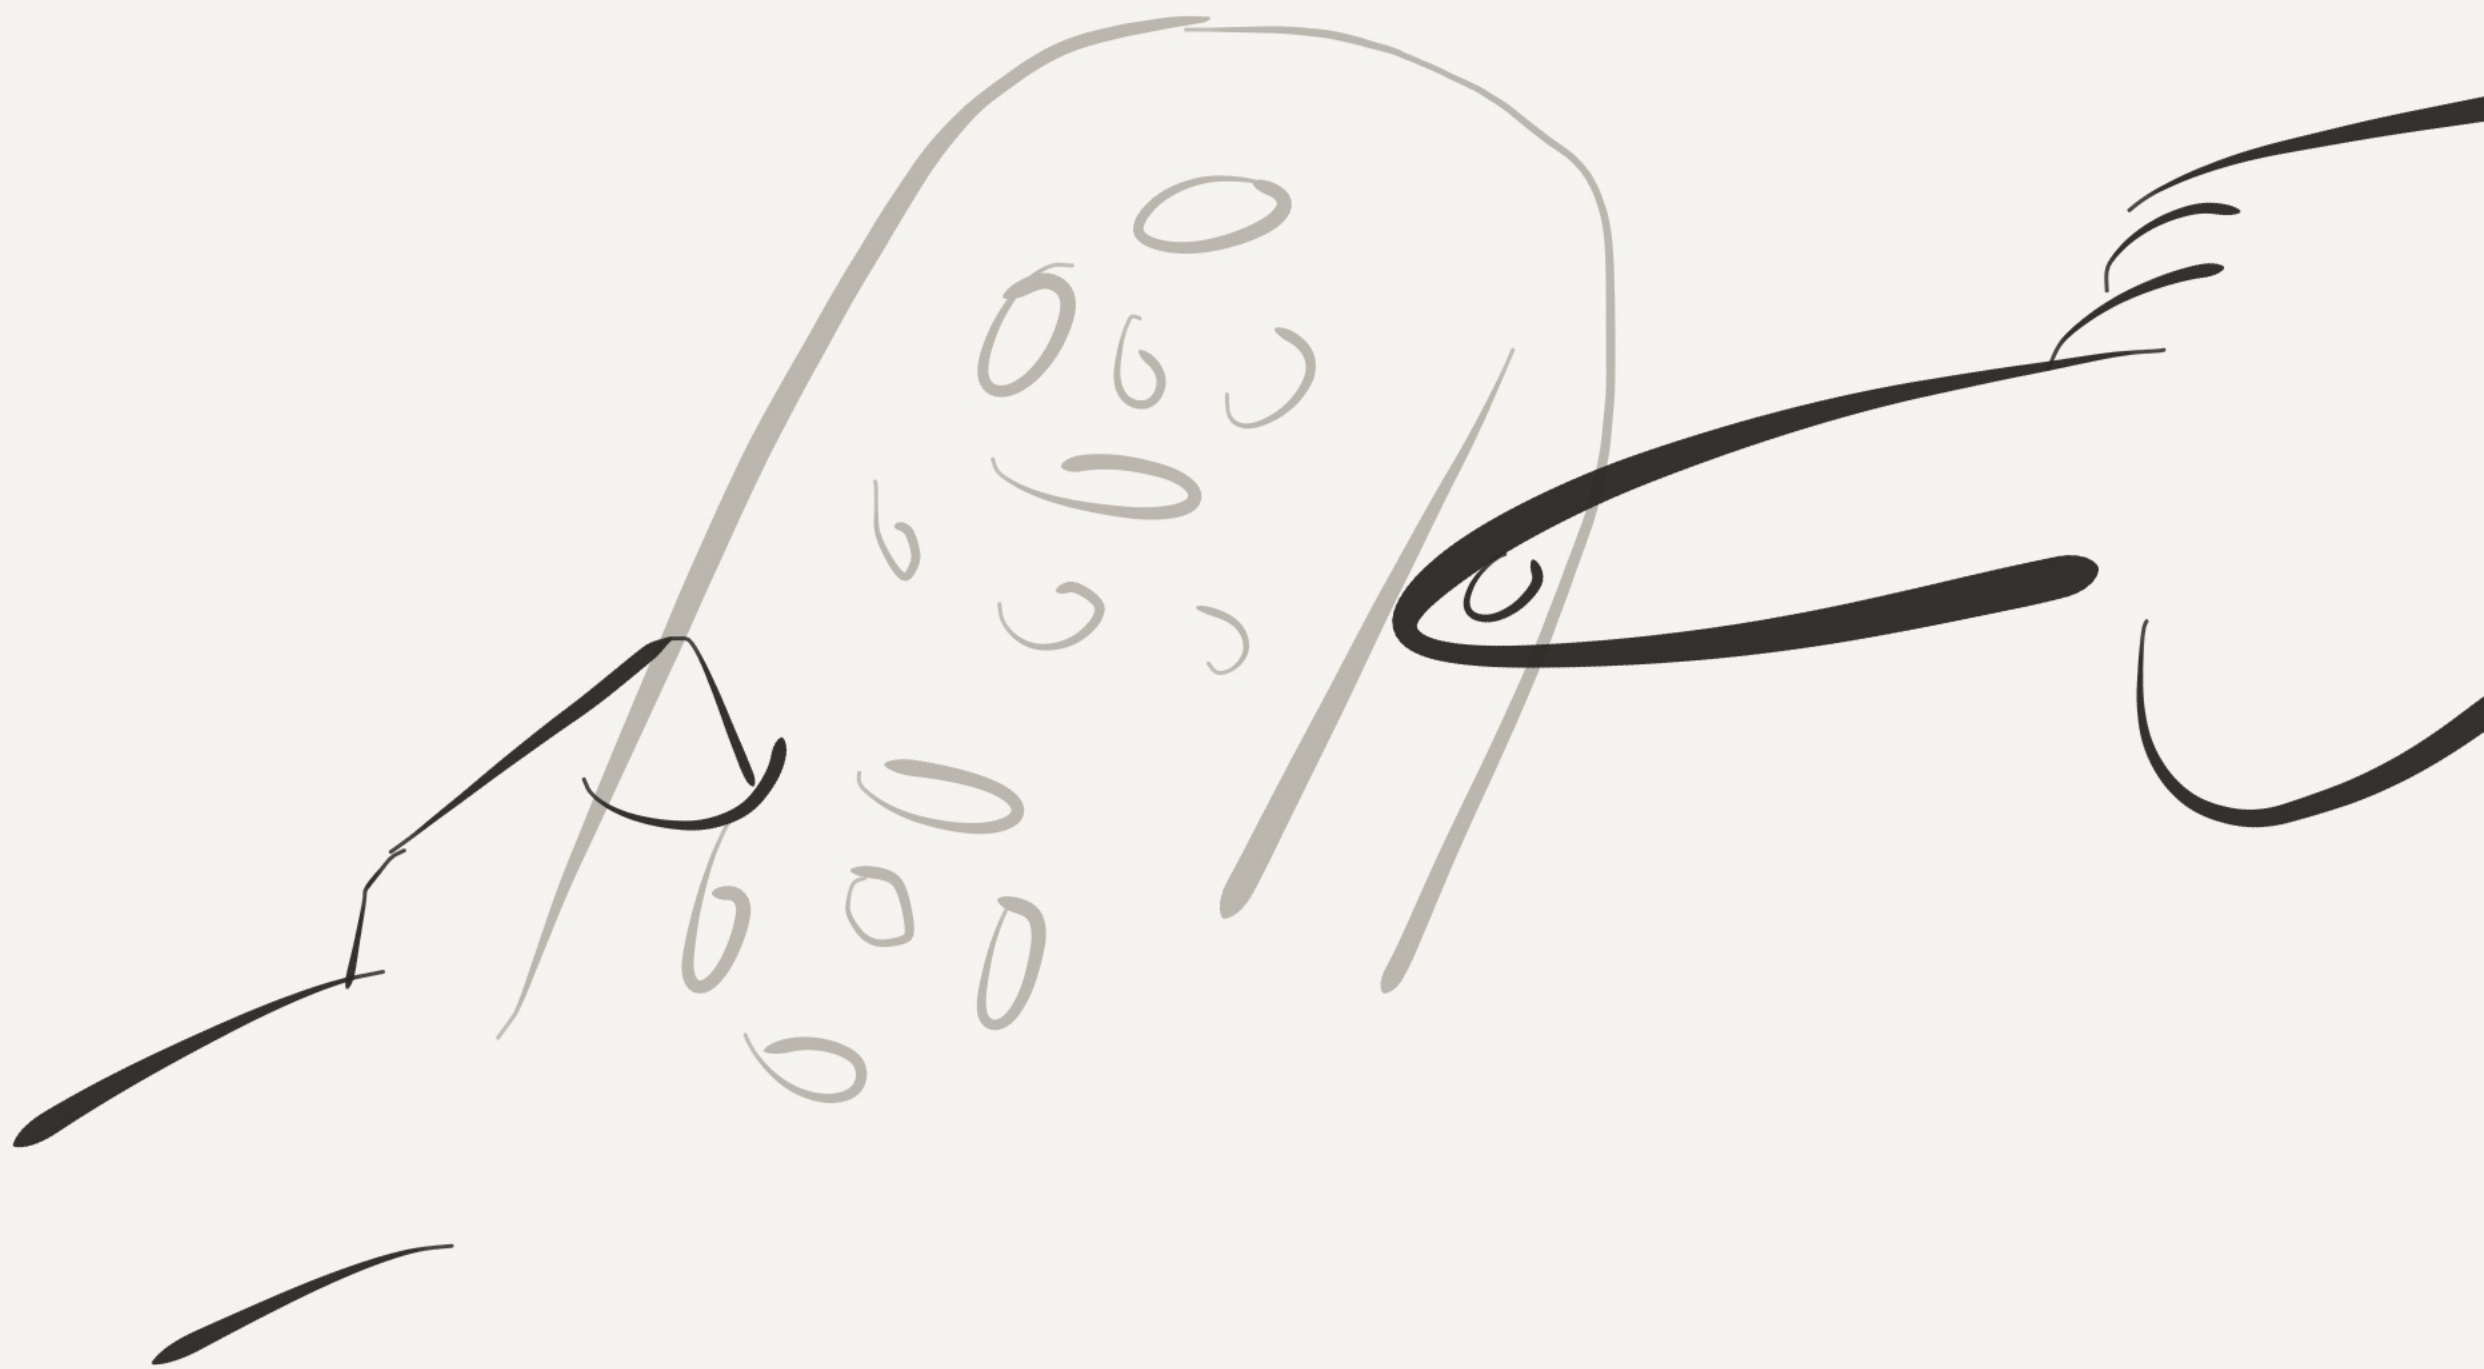

Text

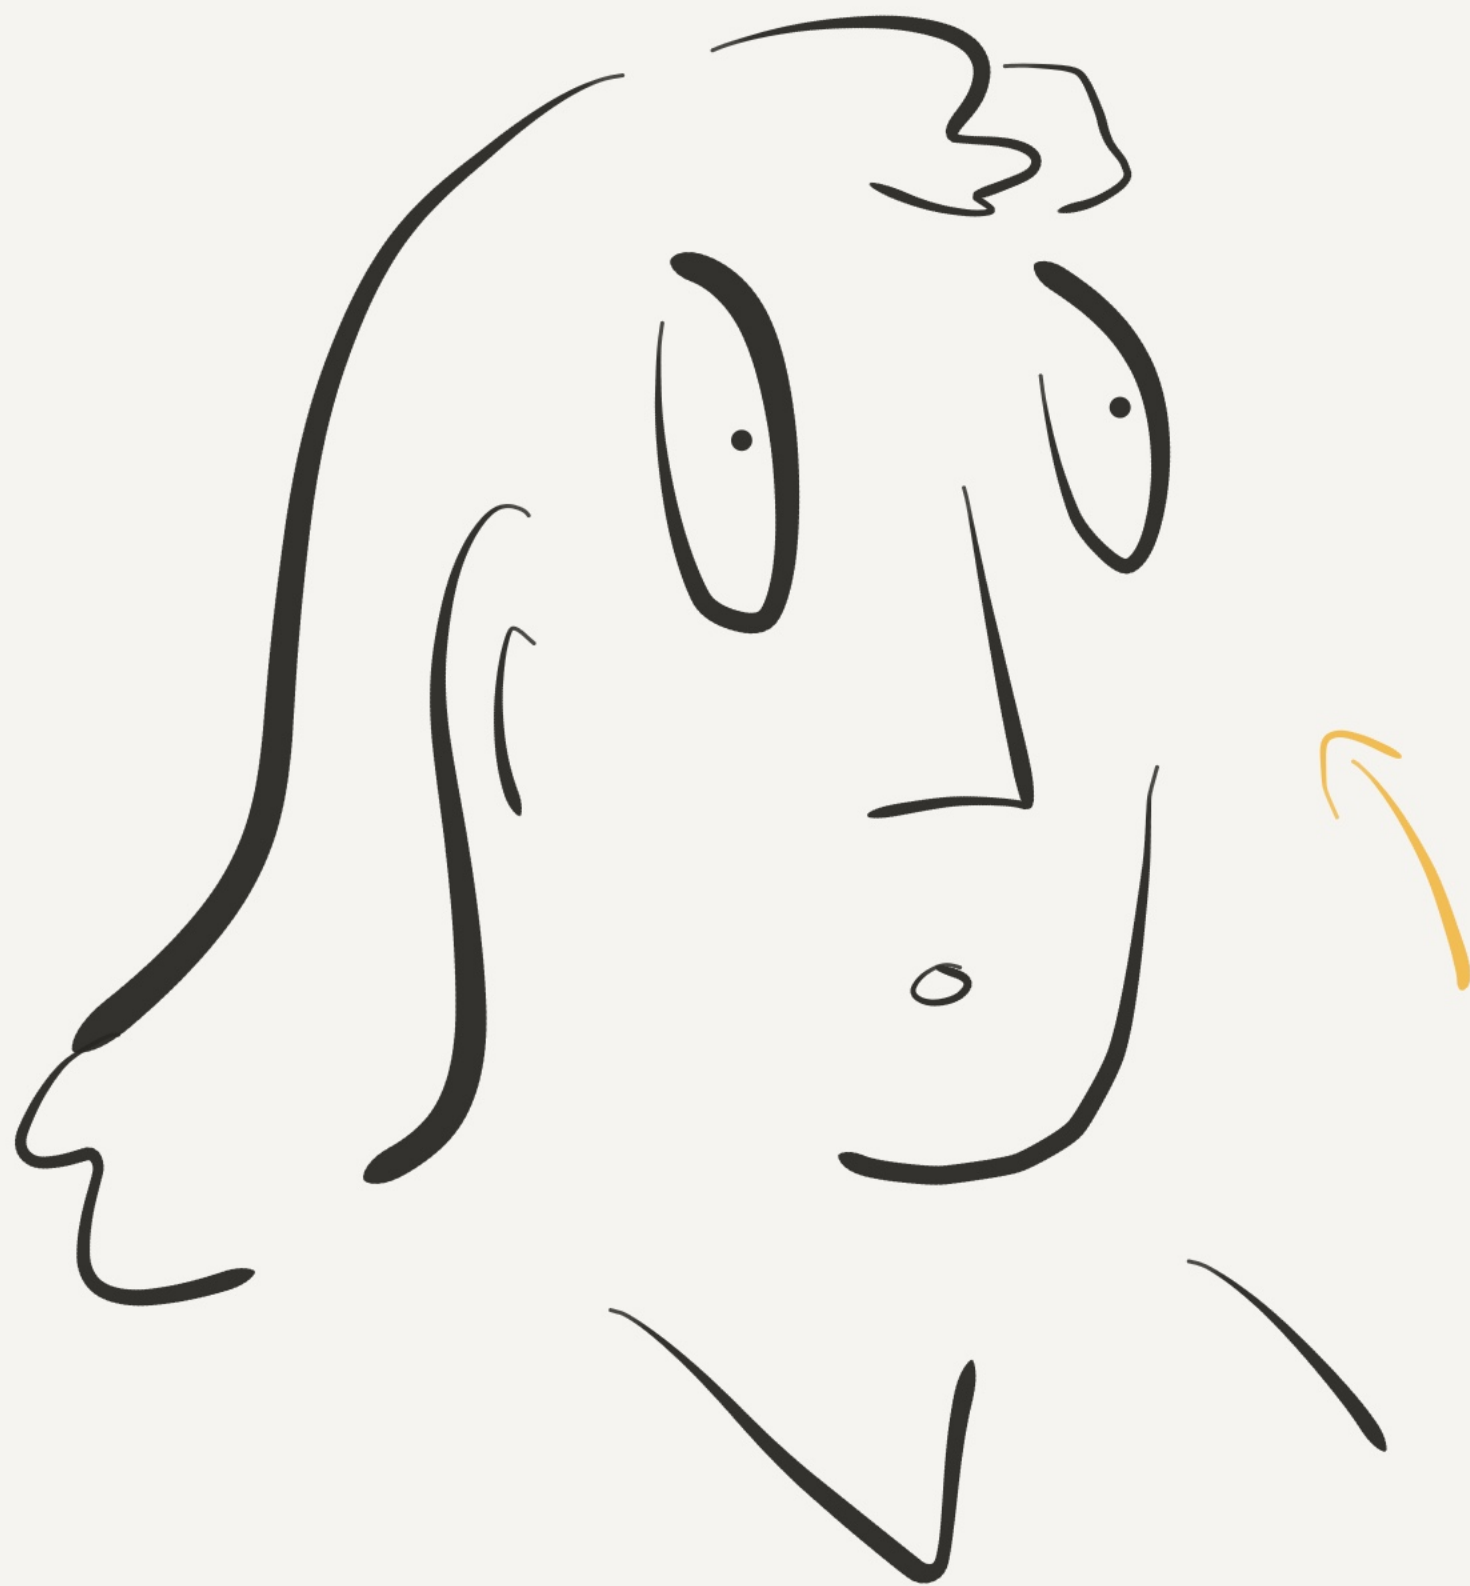

She was a bit...

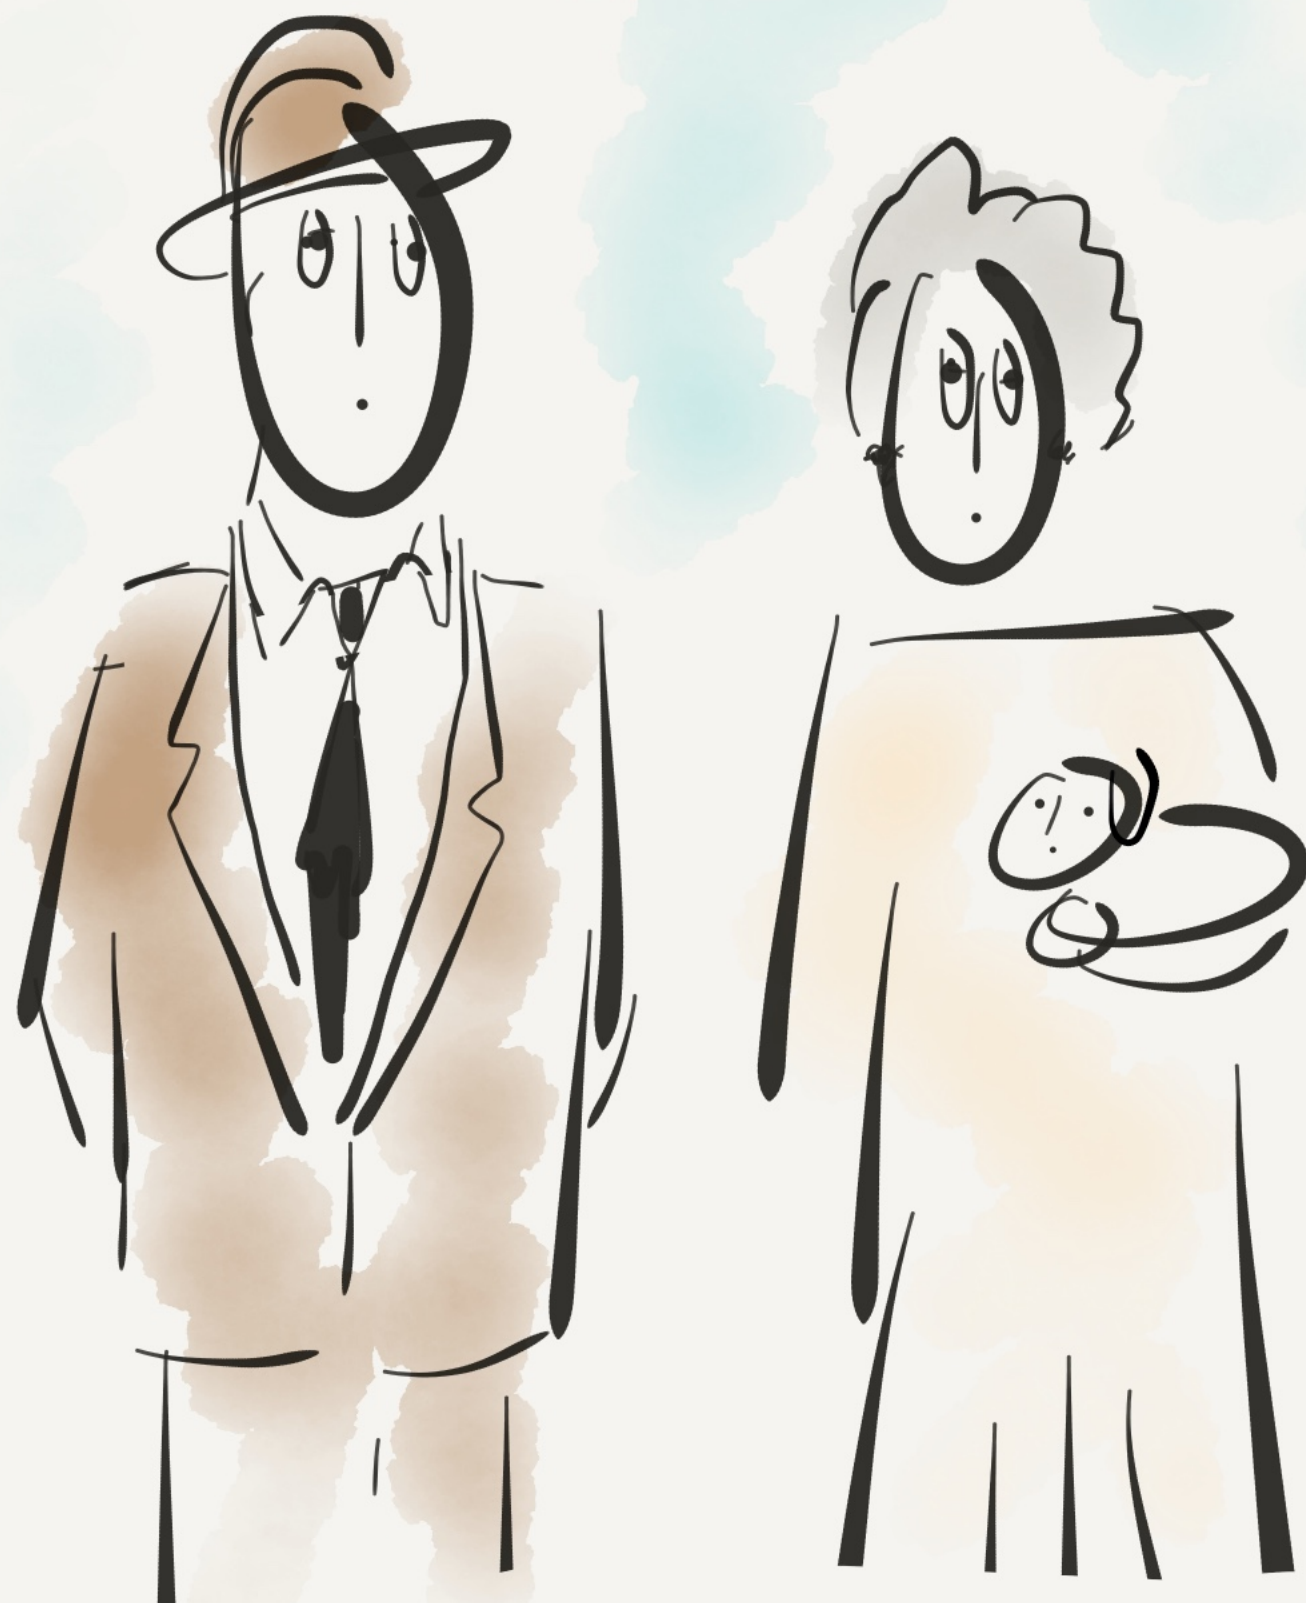

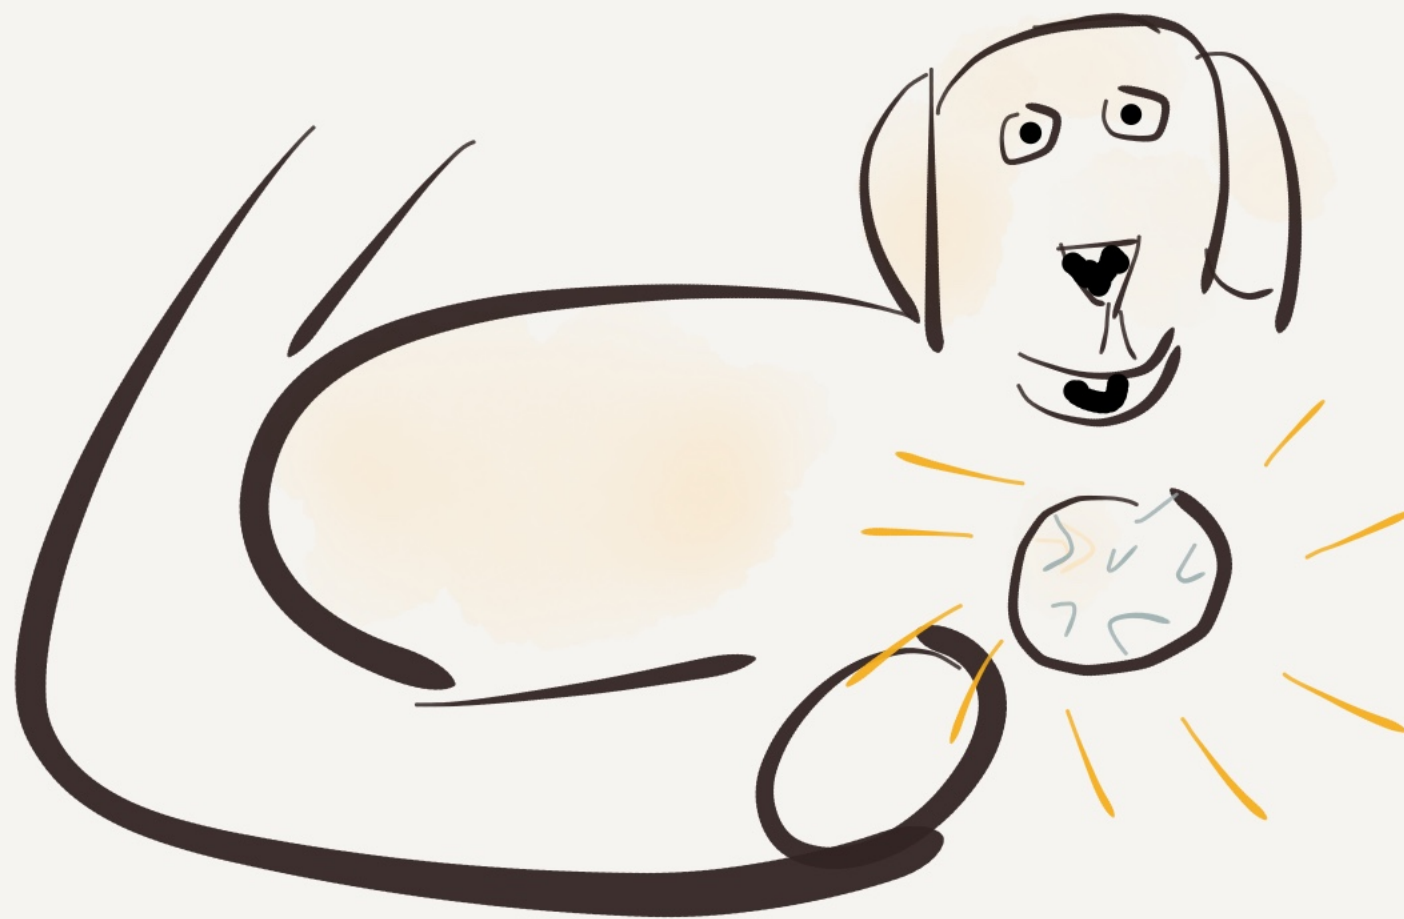

...“technology-challenged”

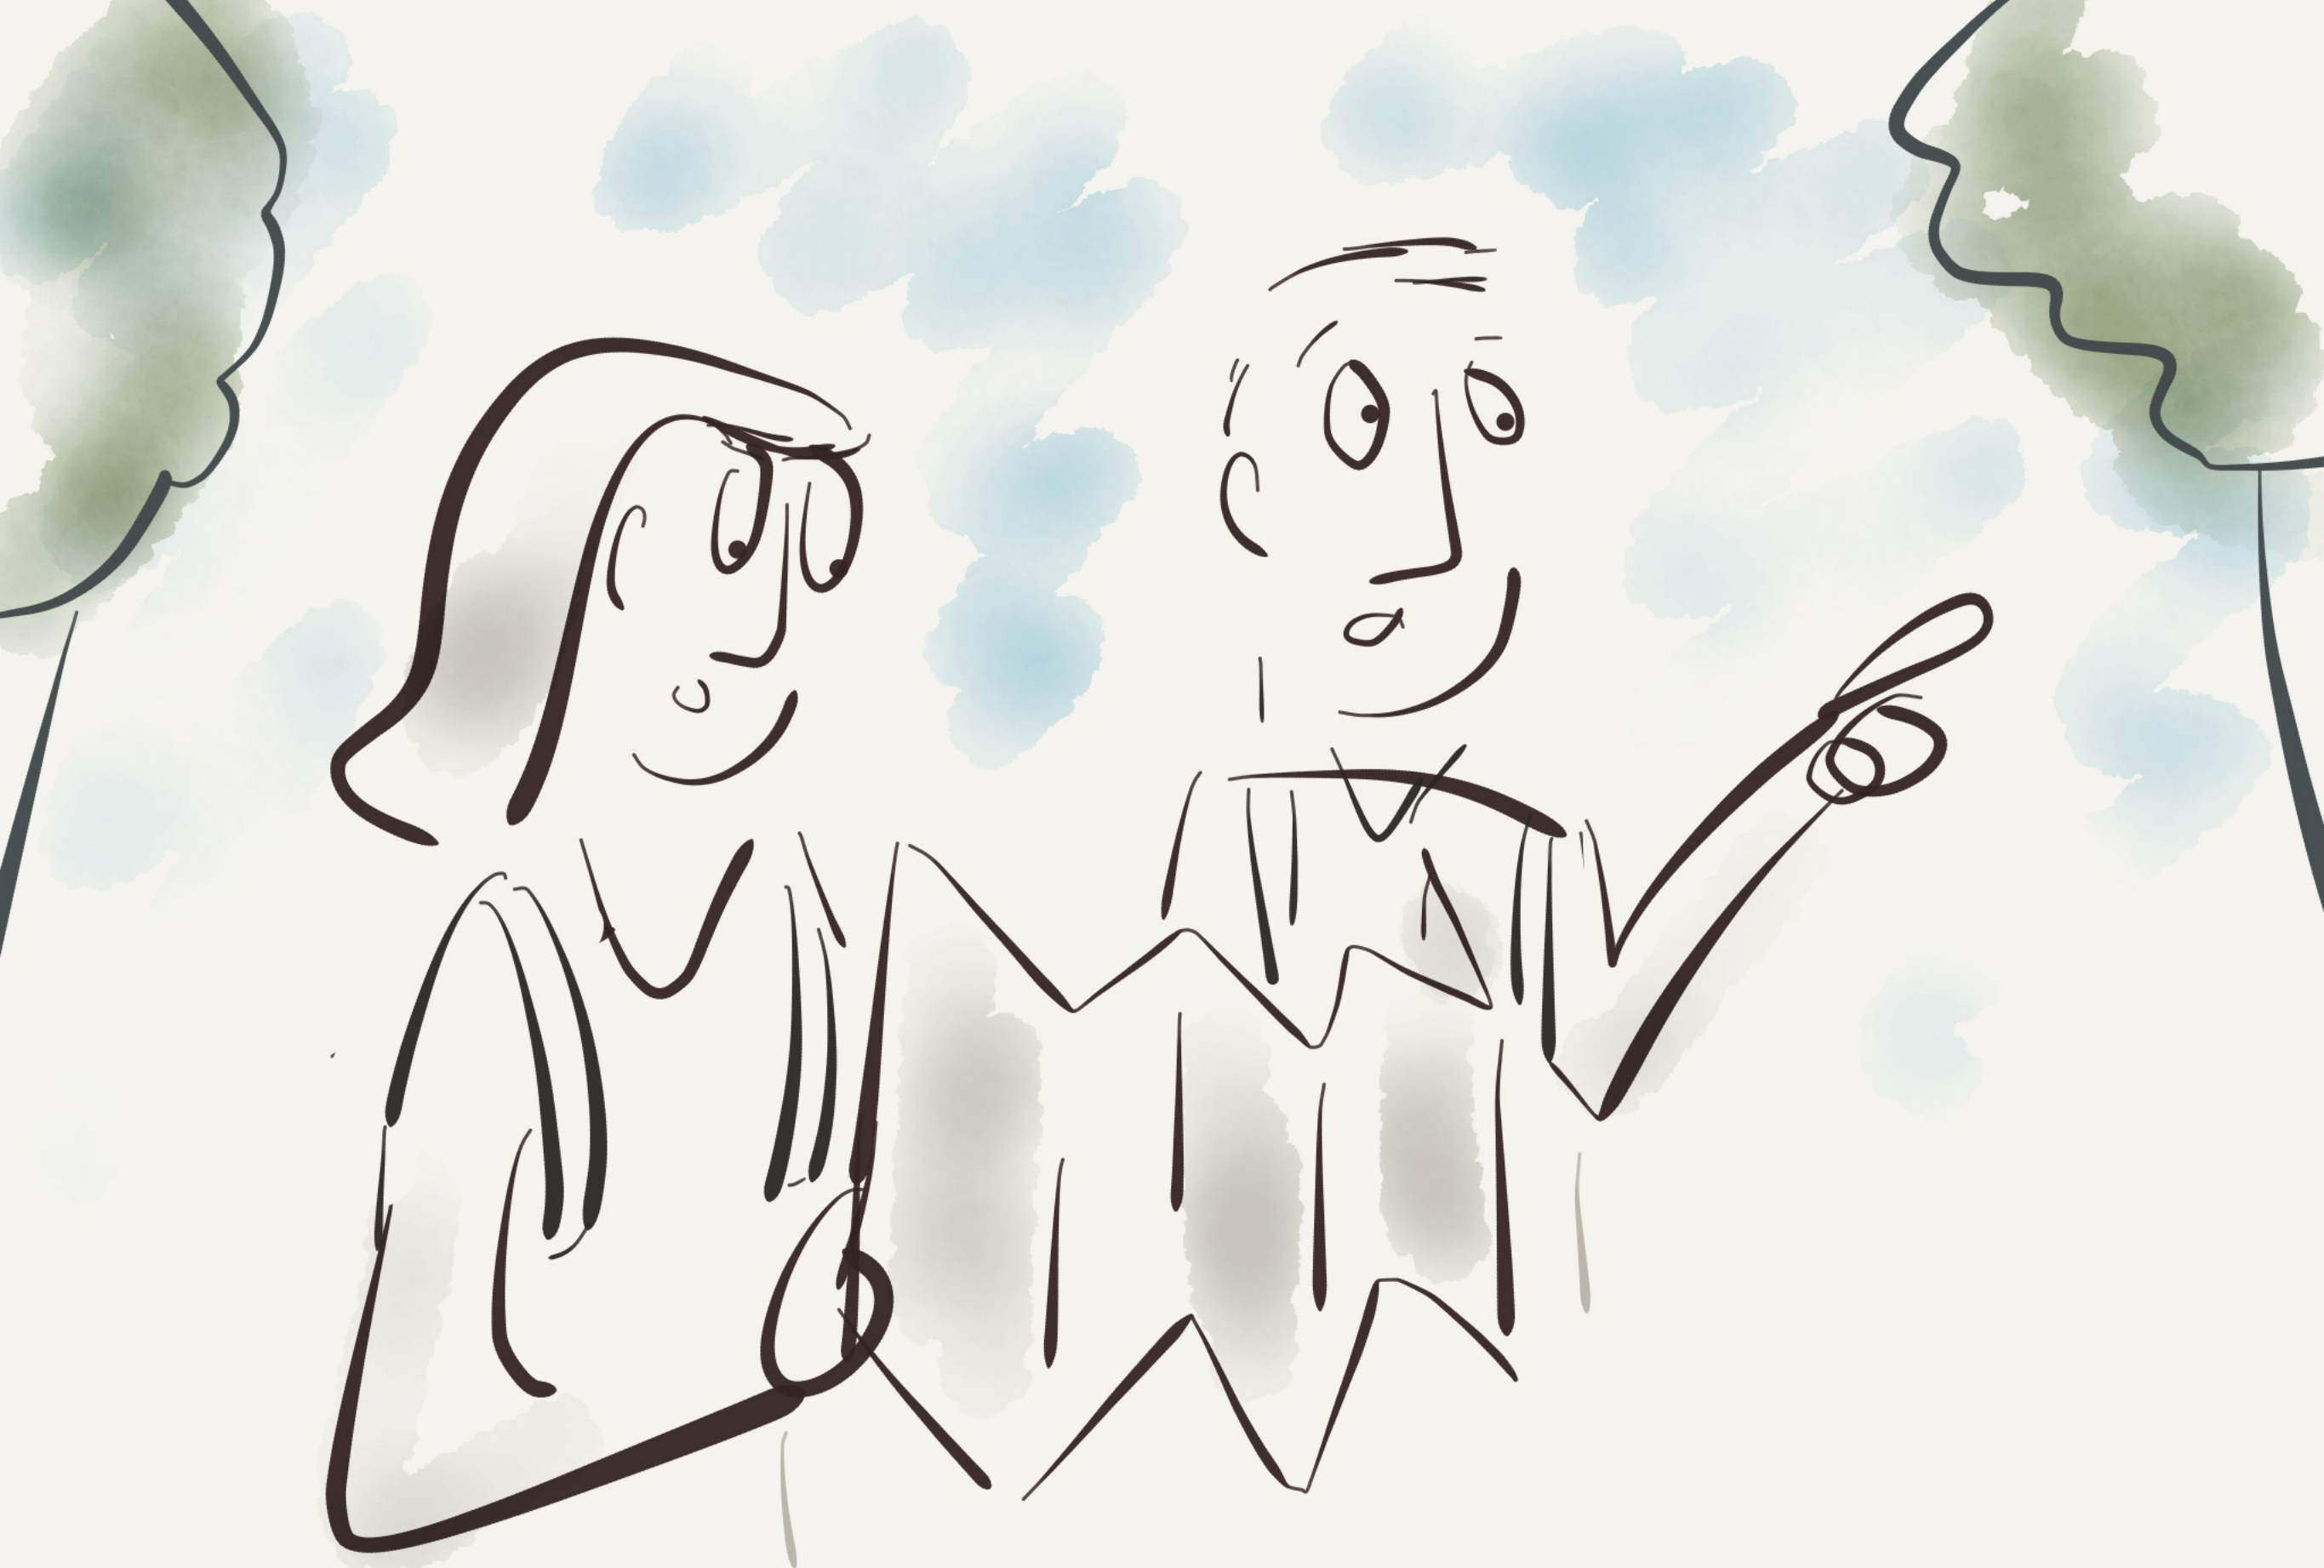

...he was a total hipster

...oh and... Mr. and Mrs. Poppenhoff...

.....and their dog, Prince Muffinstuff (the Third).
...and their penchant for disco.
Who could forget them?

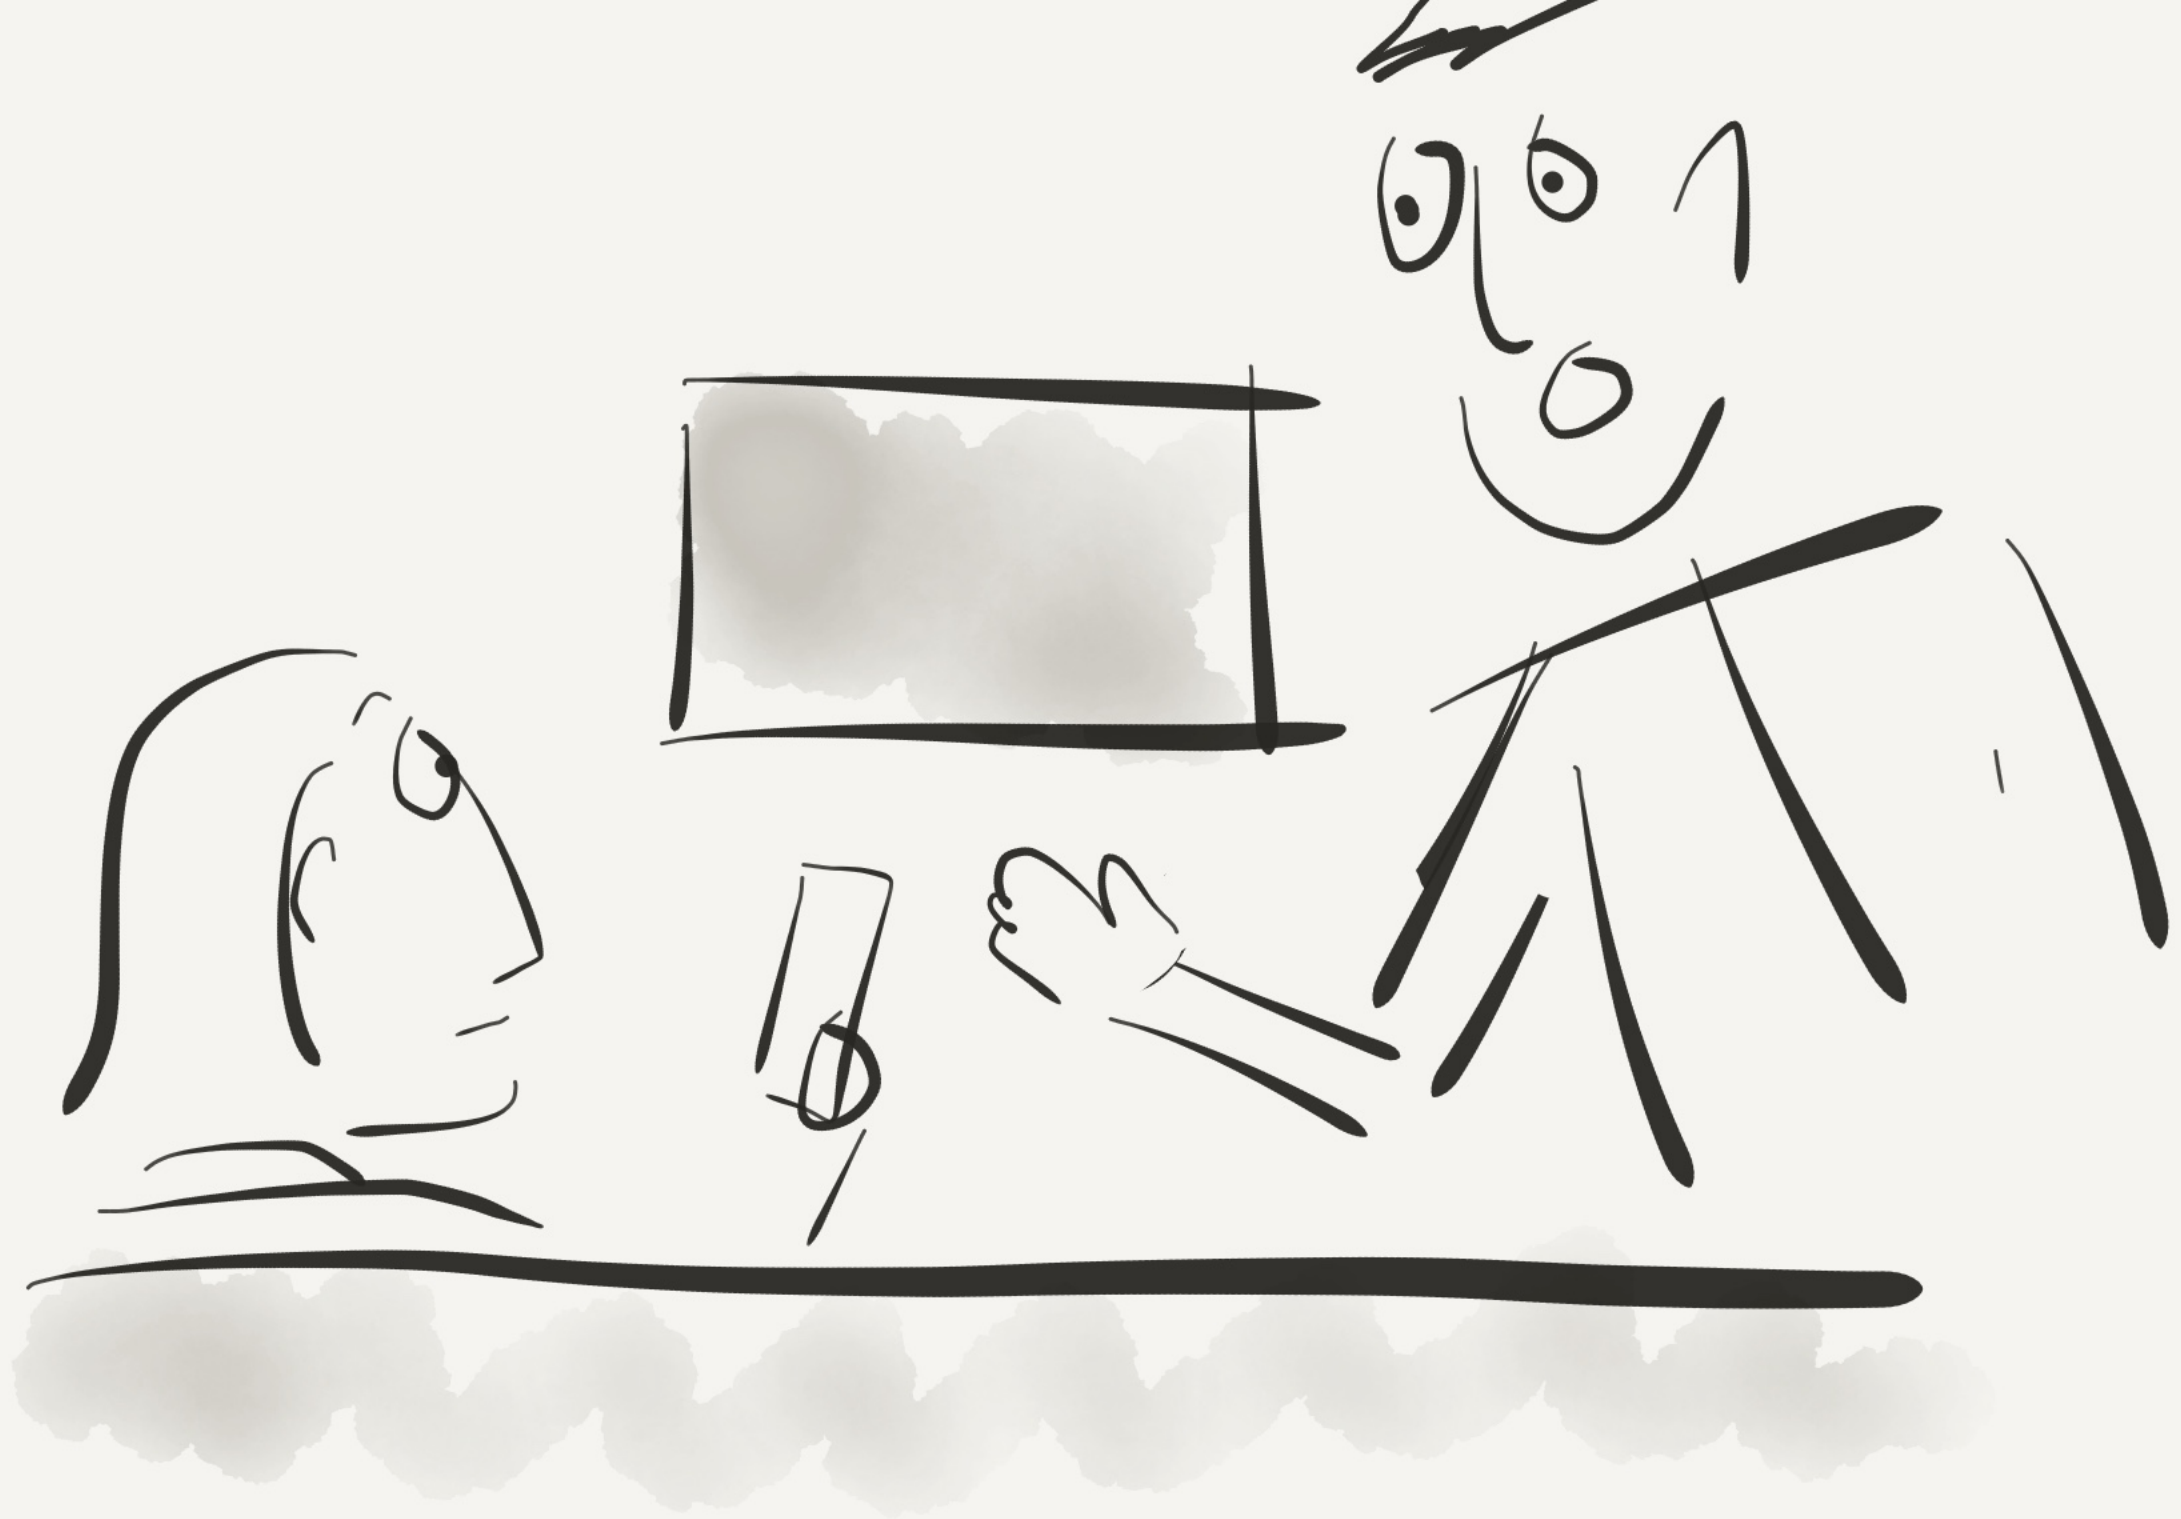

All of Bob's guests are very different people with different needs.

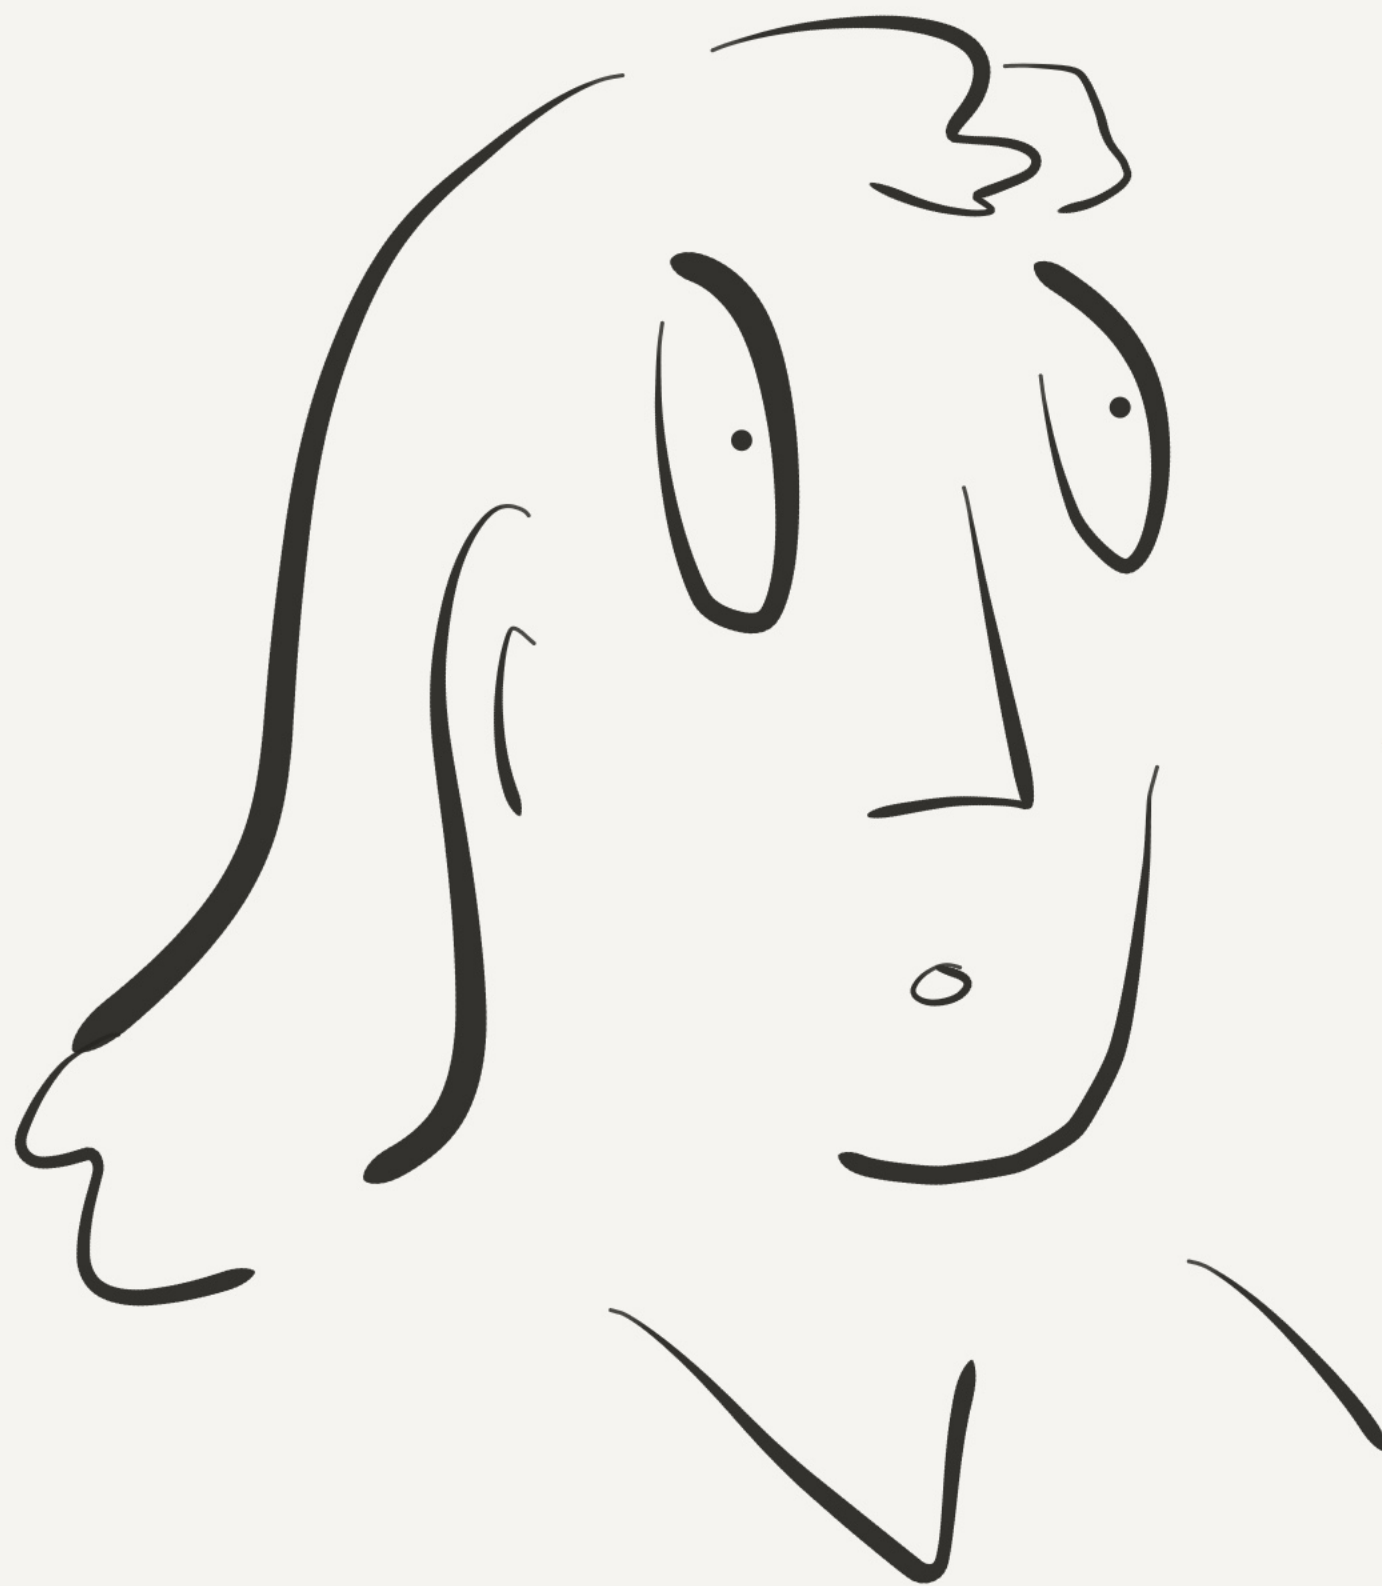

They all want a delightful ...

...and memorable visit.

But providing this...

...isn't easy...

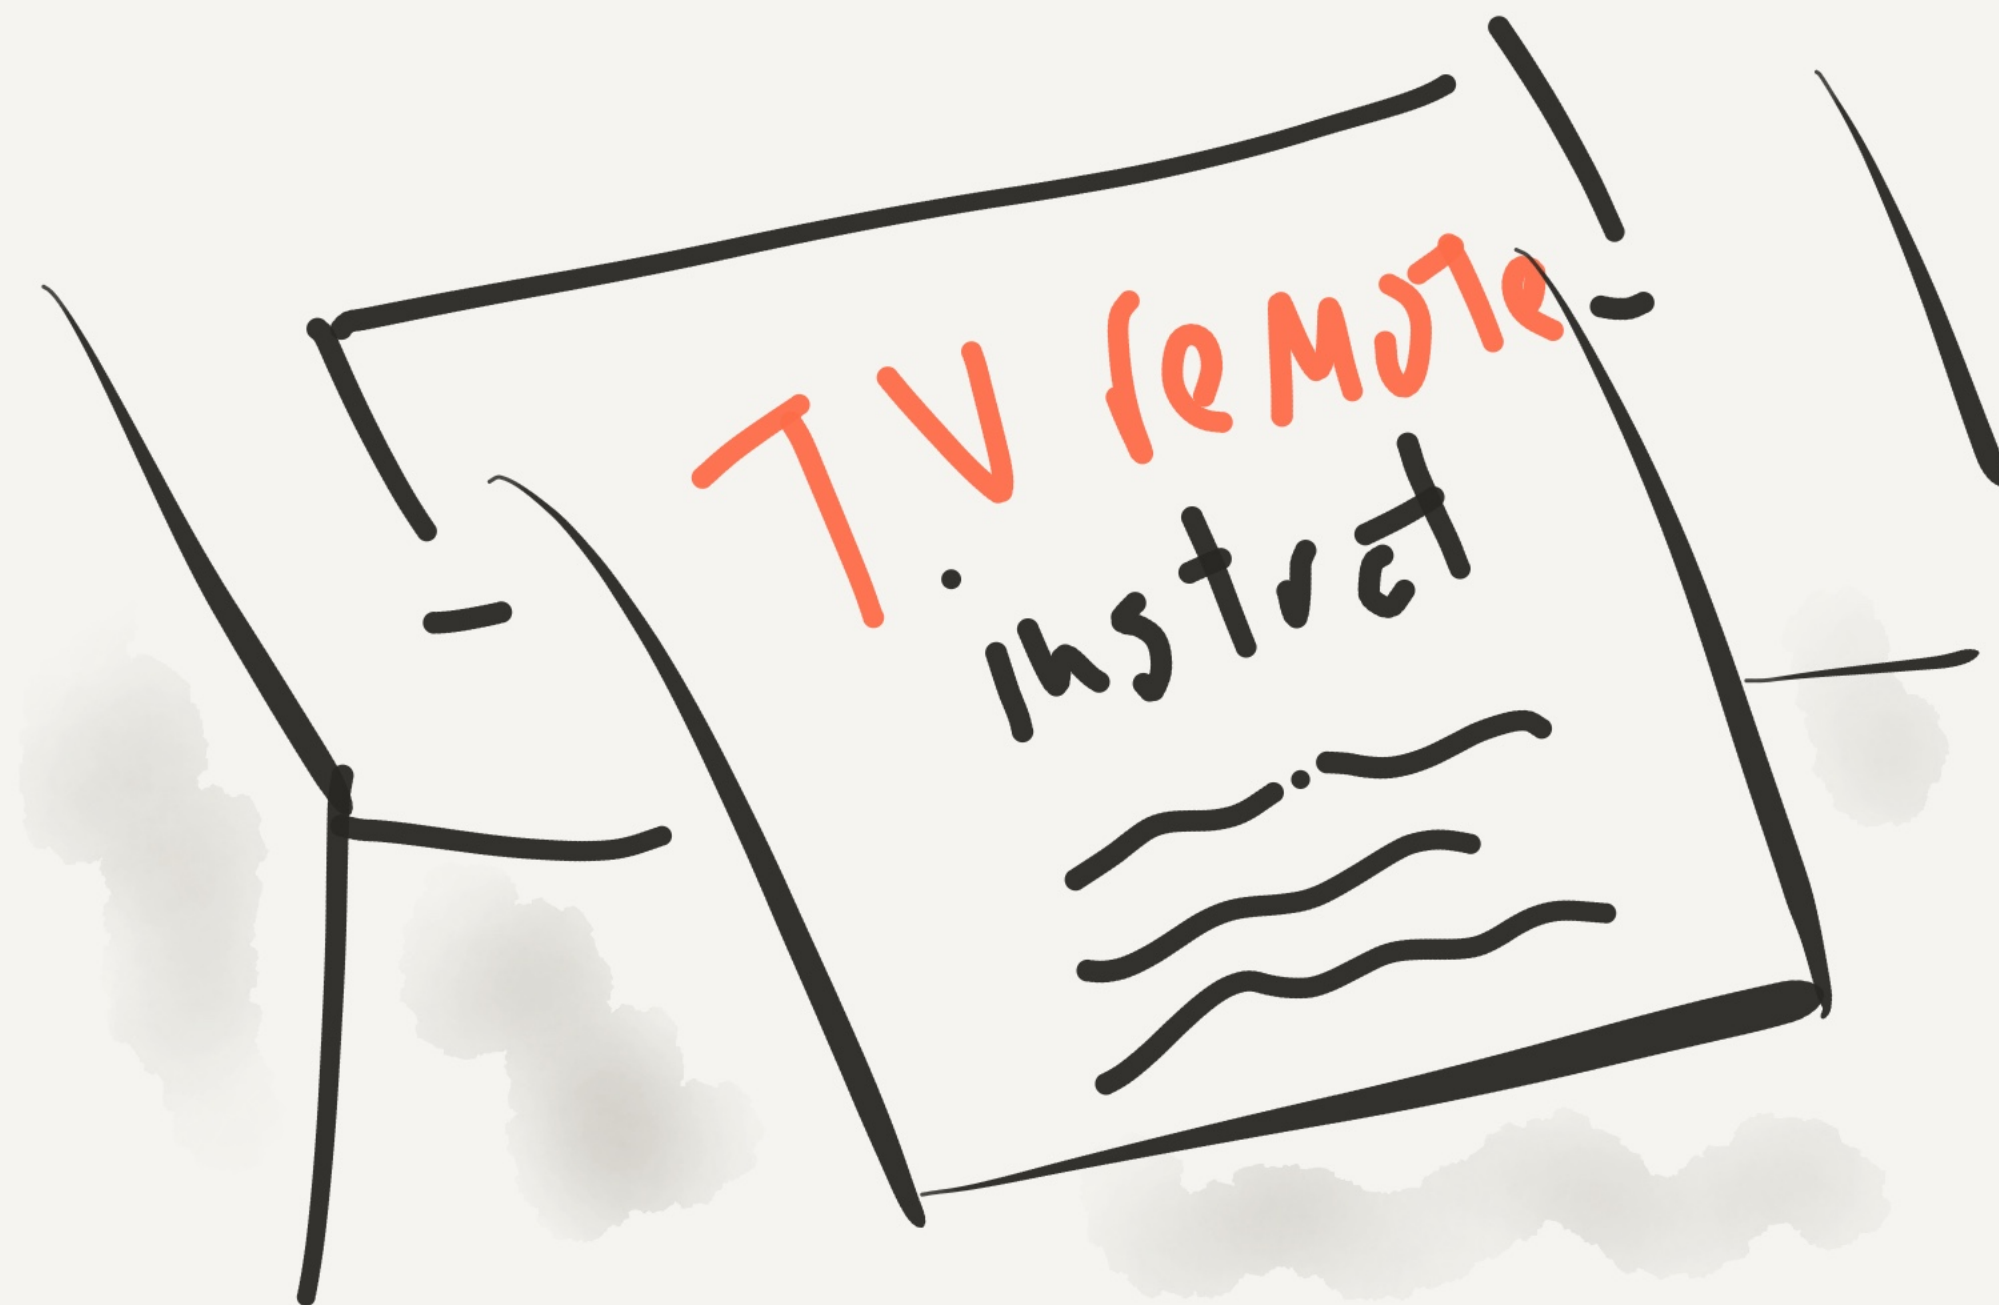

...especially for Bob.

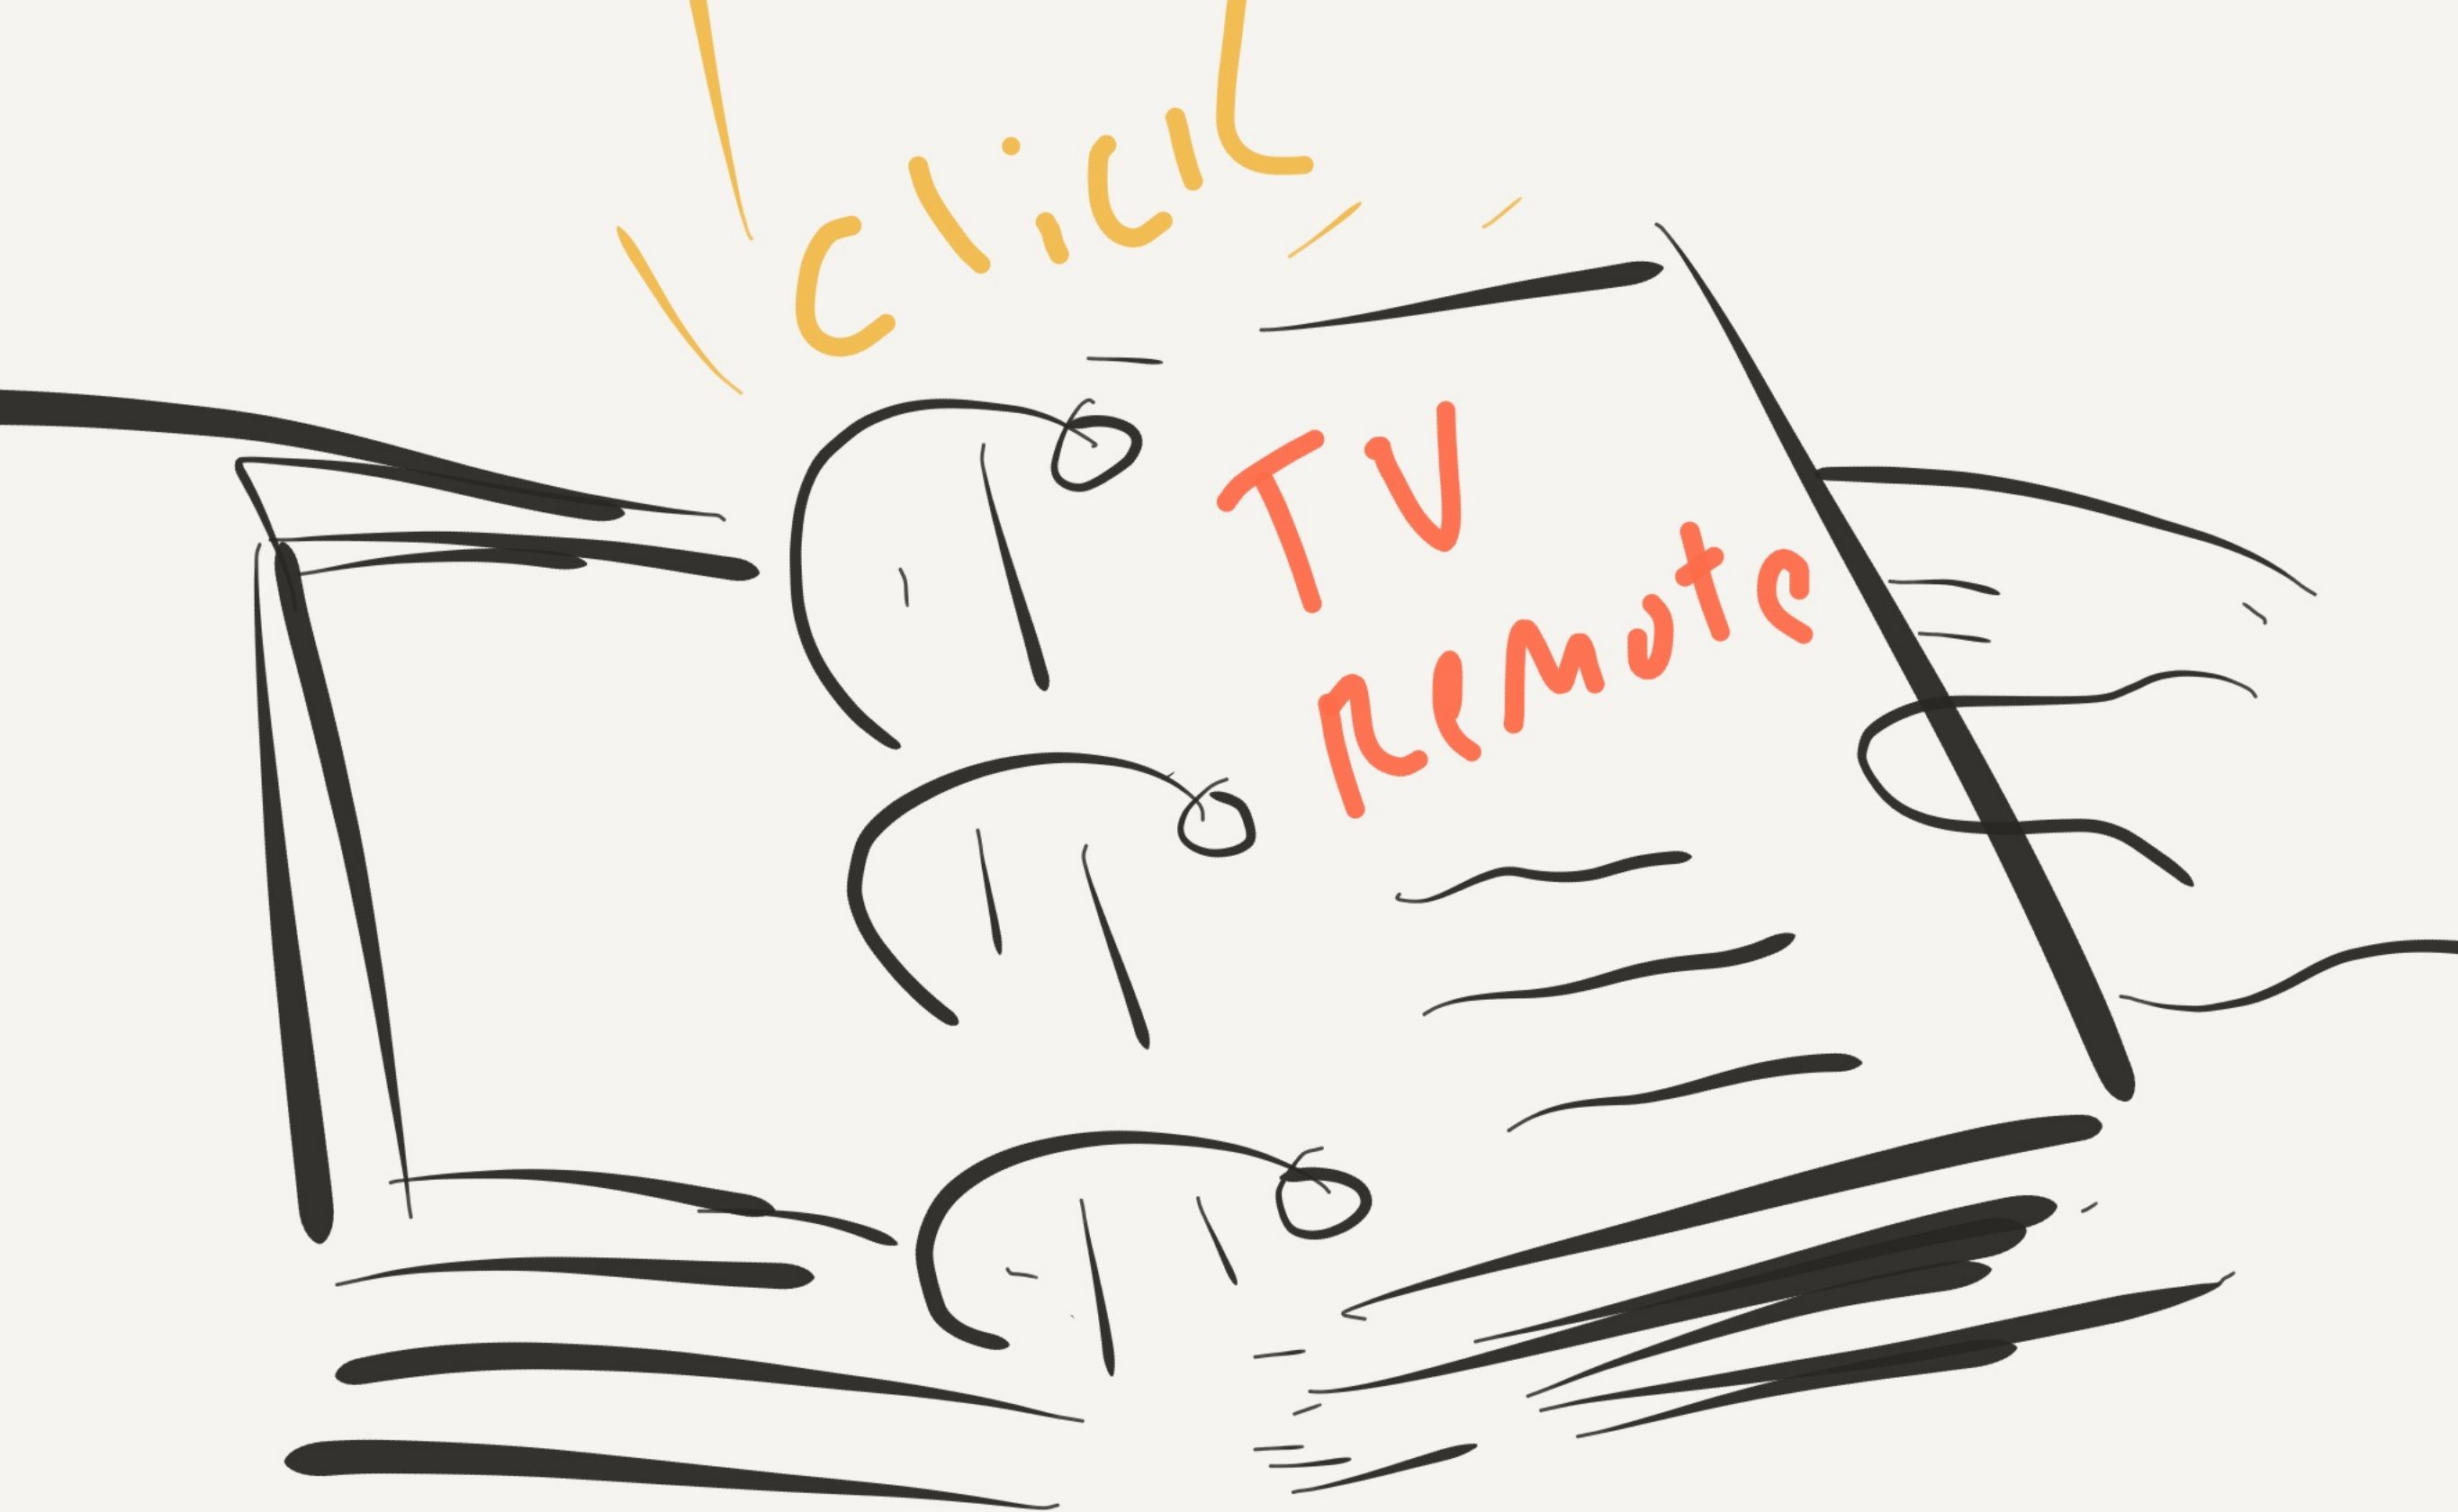

Bob just wants them to be happy!

Because Bob is a good host...

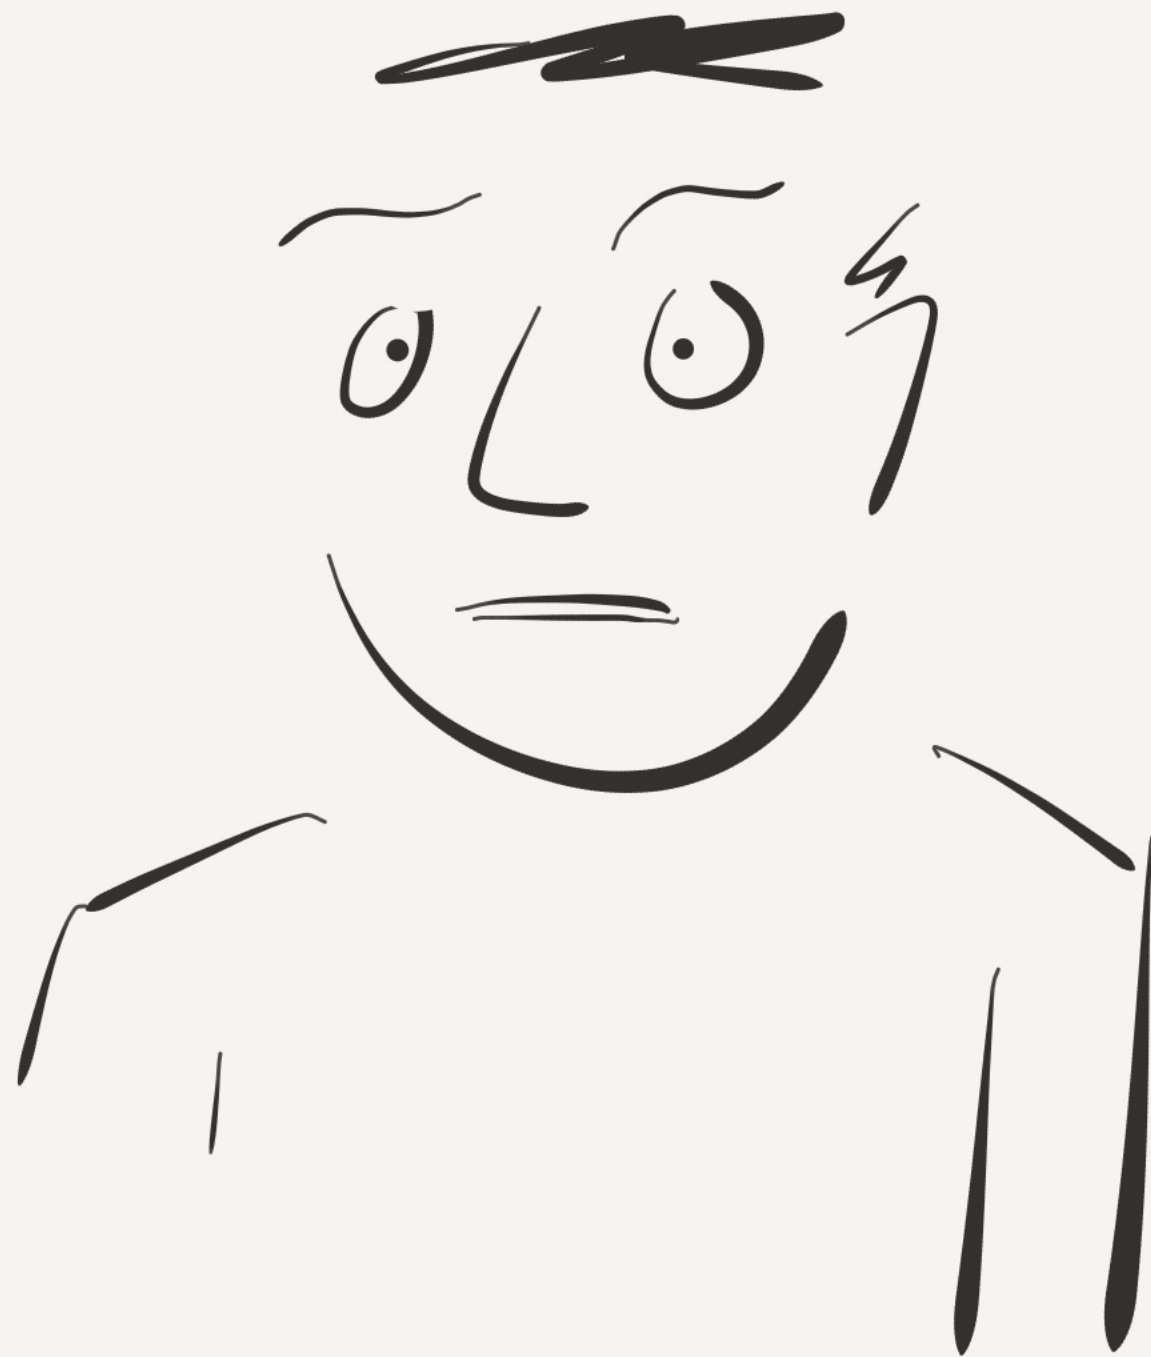

...who cares about his guests.

And, because happy guests mean better reviews...

Hey Bob!
How's it going?

More guests,
more

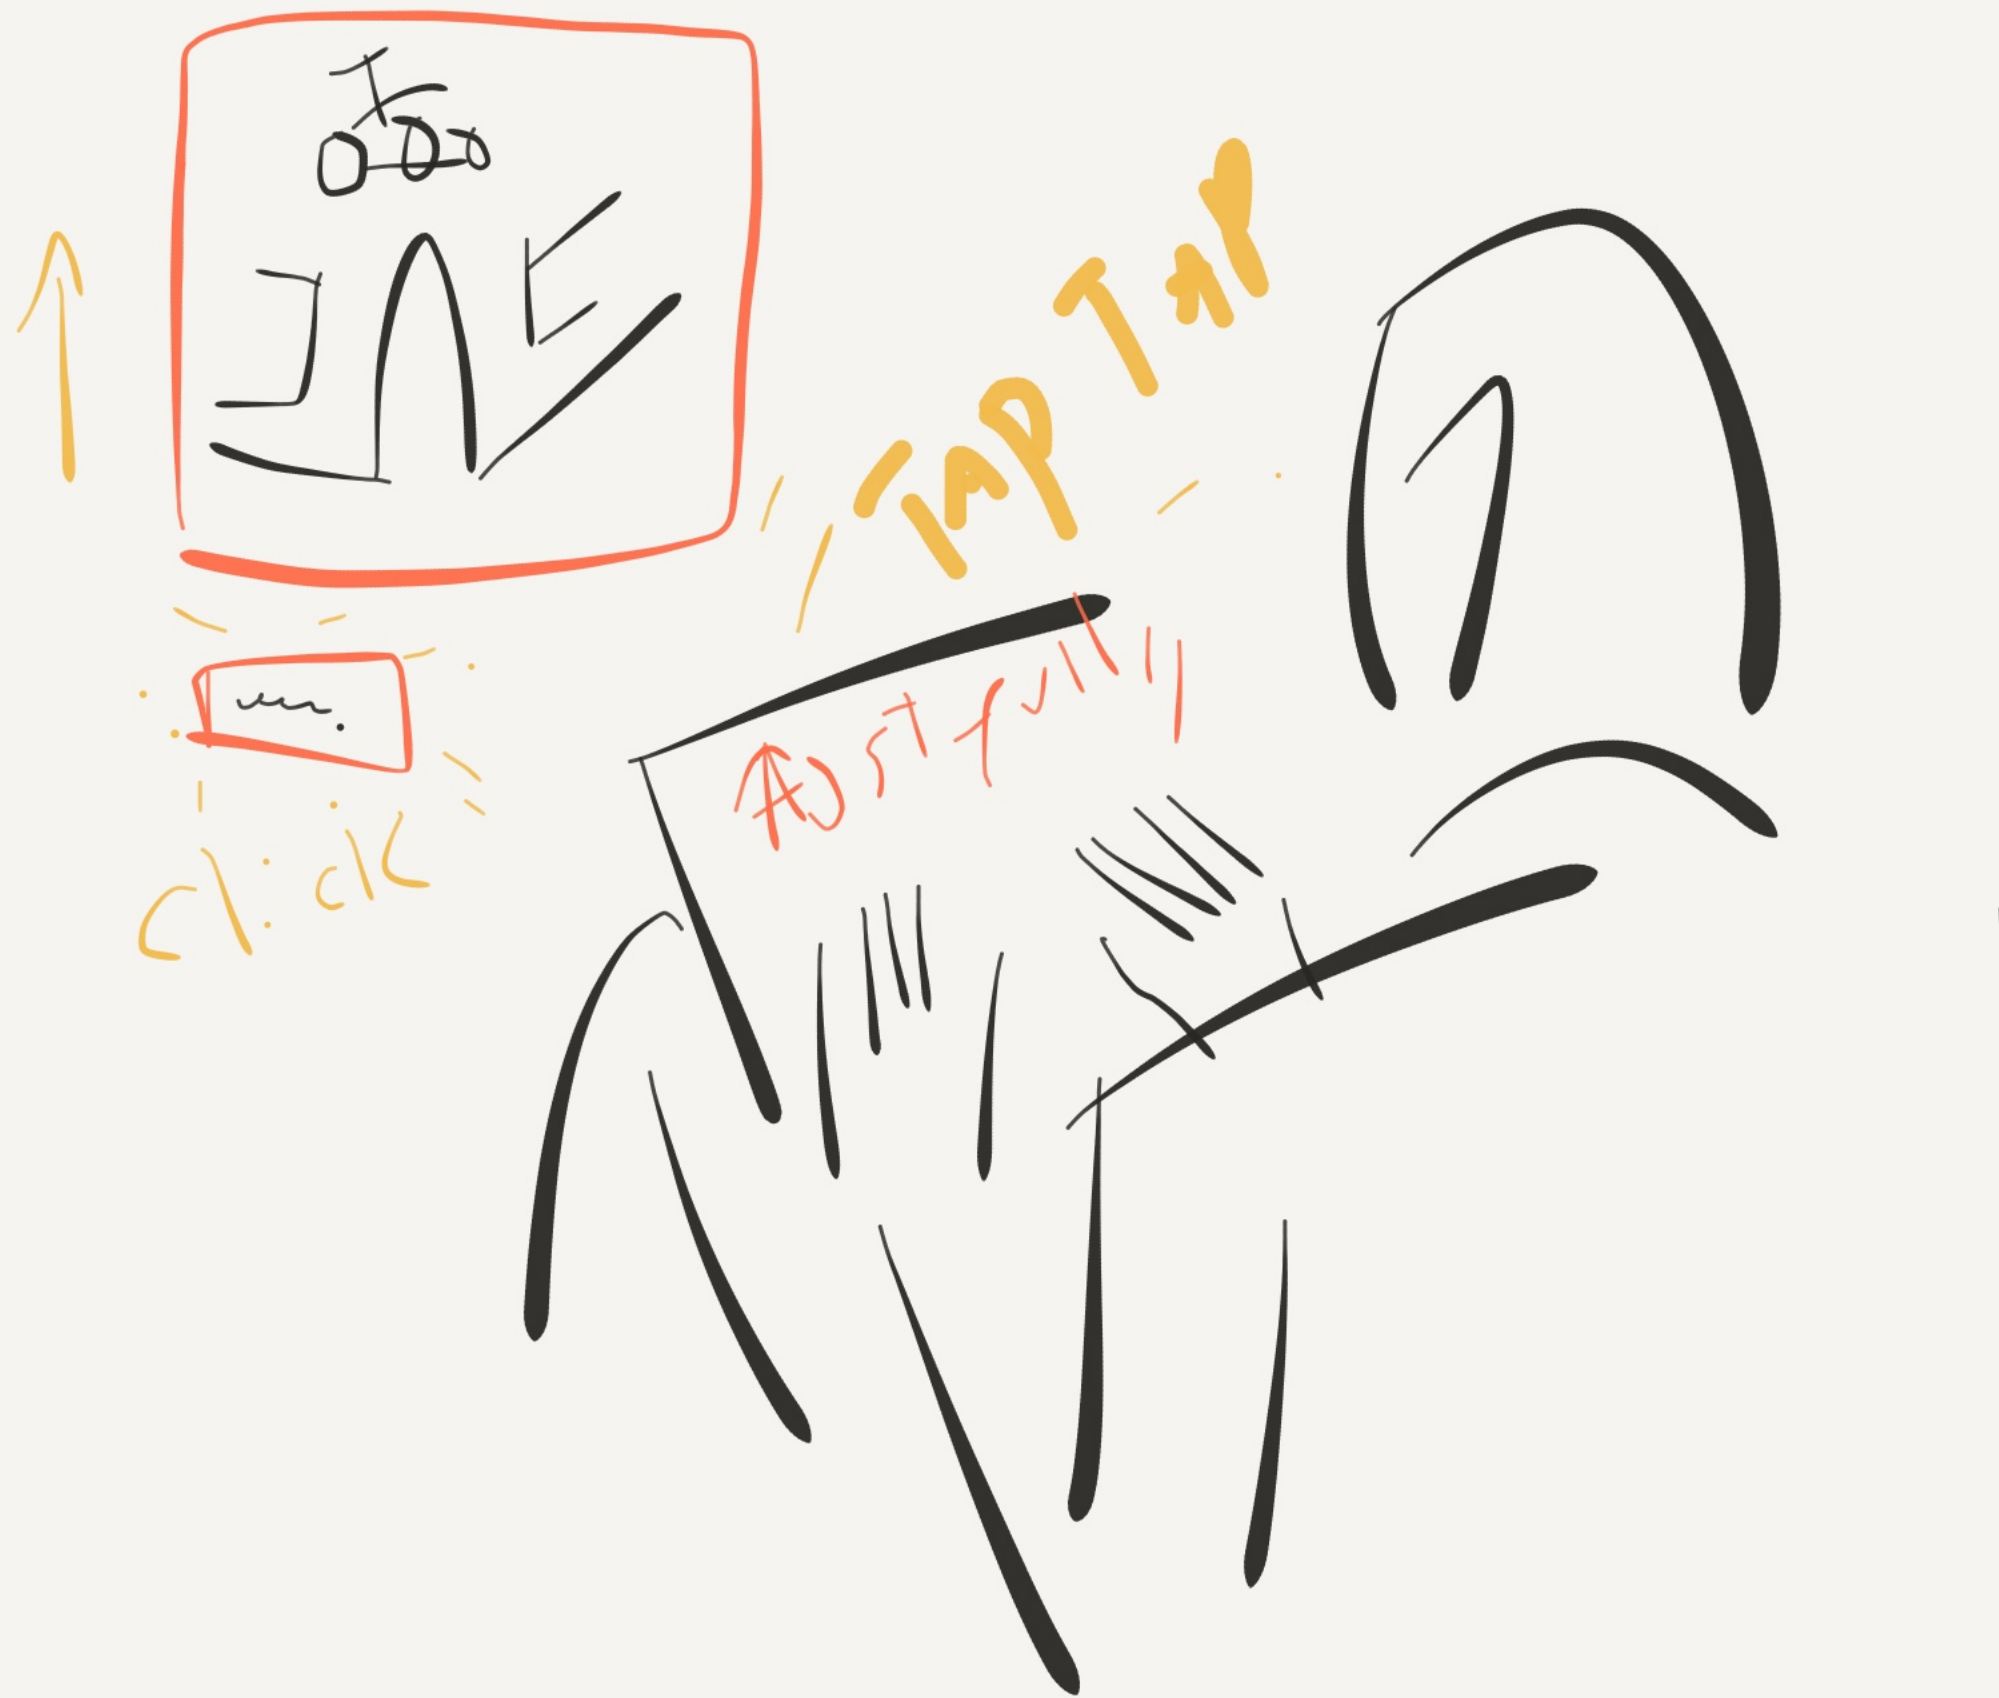

Now, Bob can help his guests and share the wonderful things ...

...that make his home and neighborhood so uniquely... "Bob."

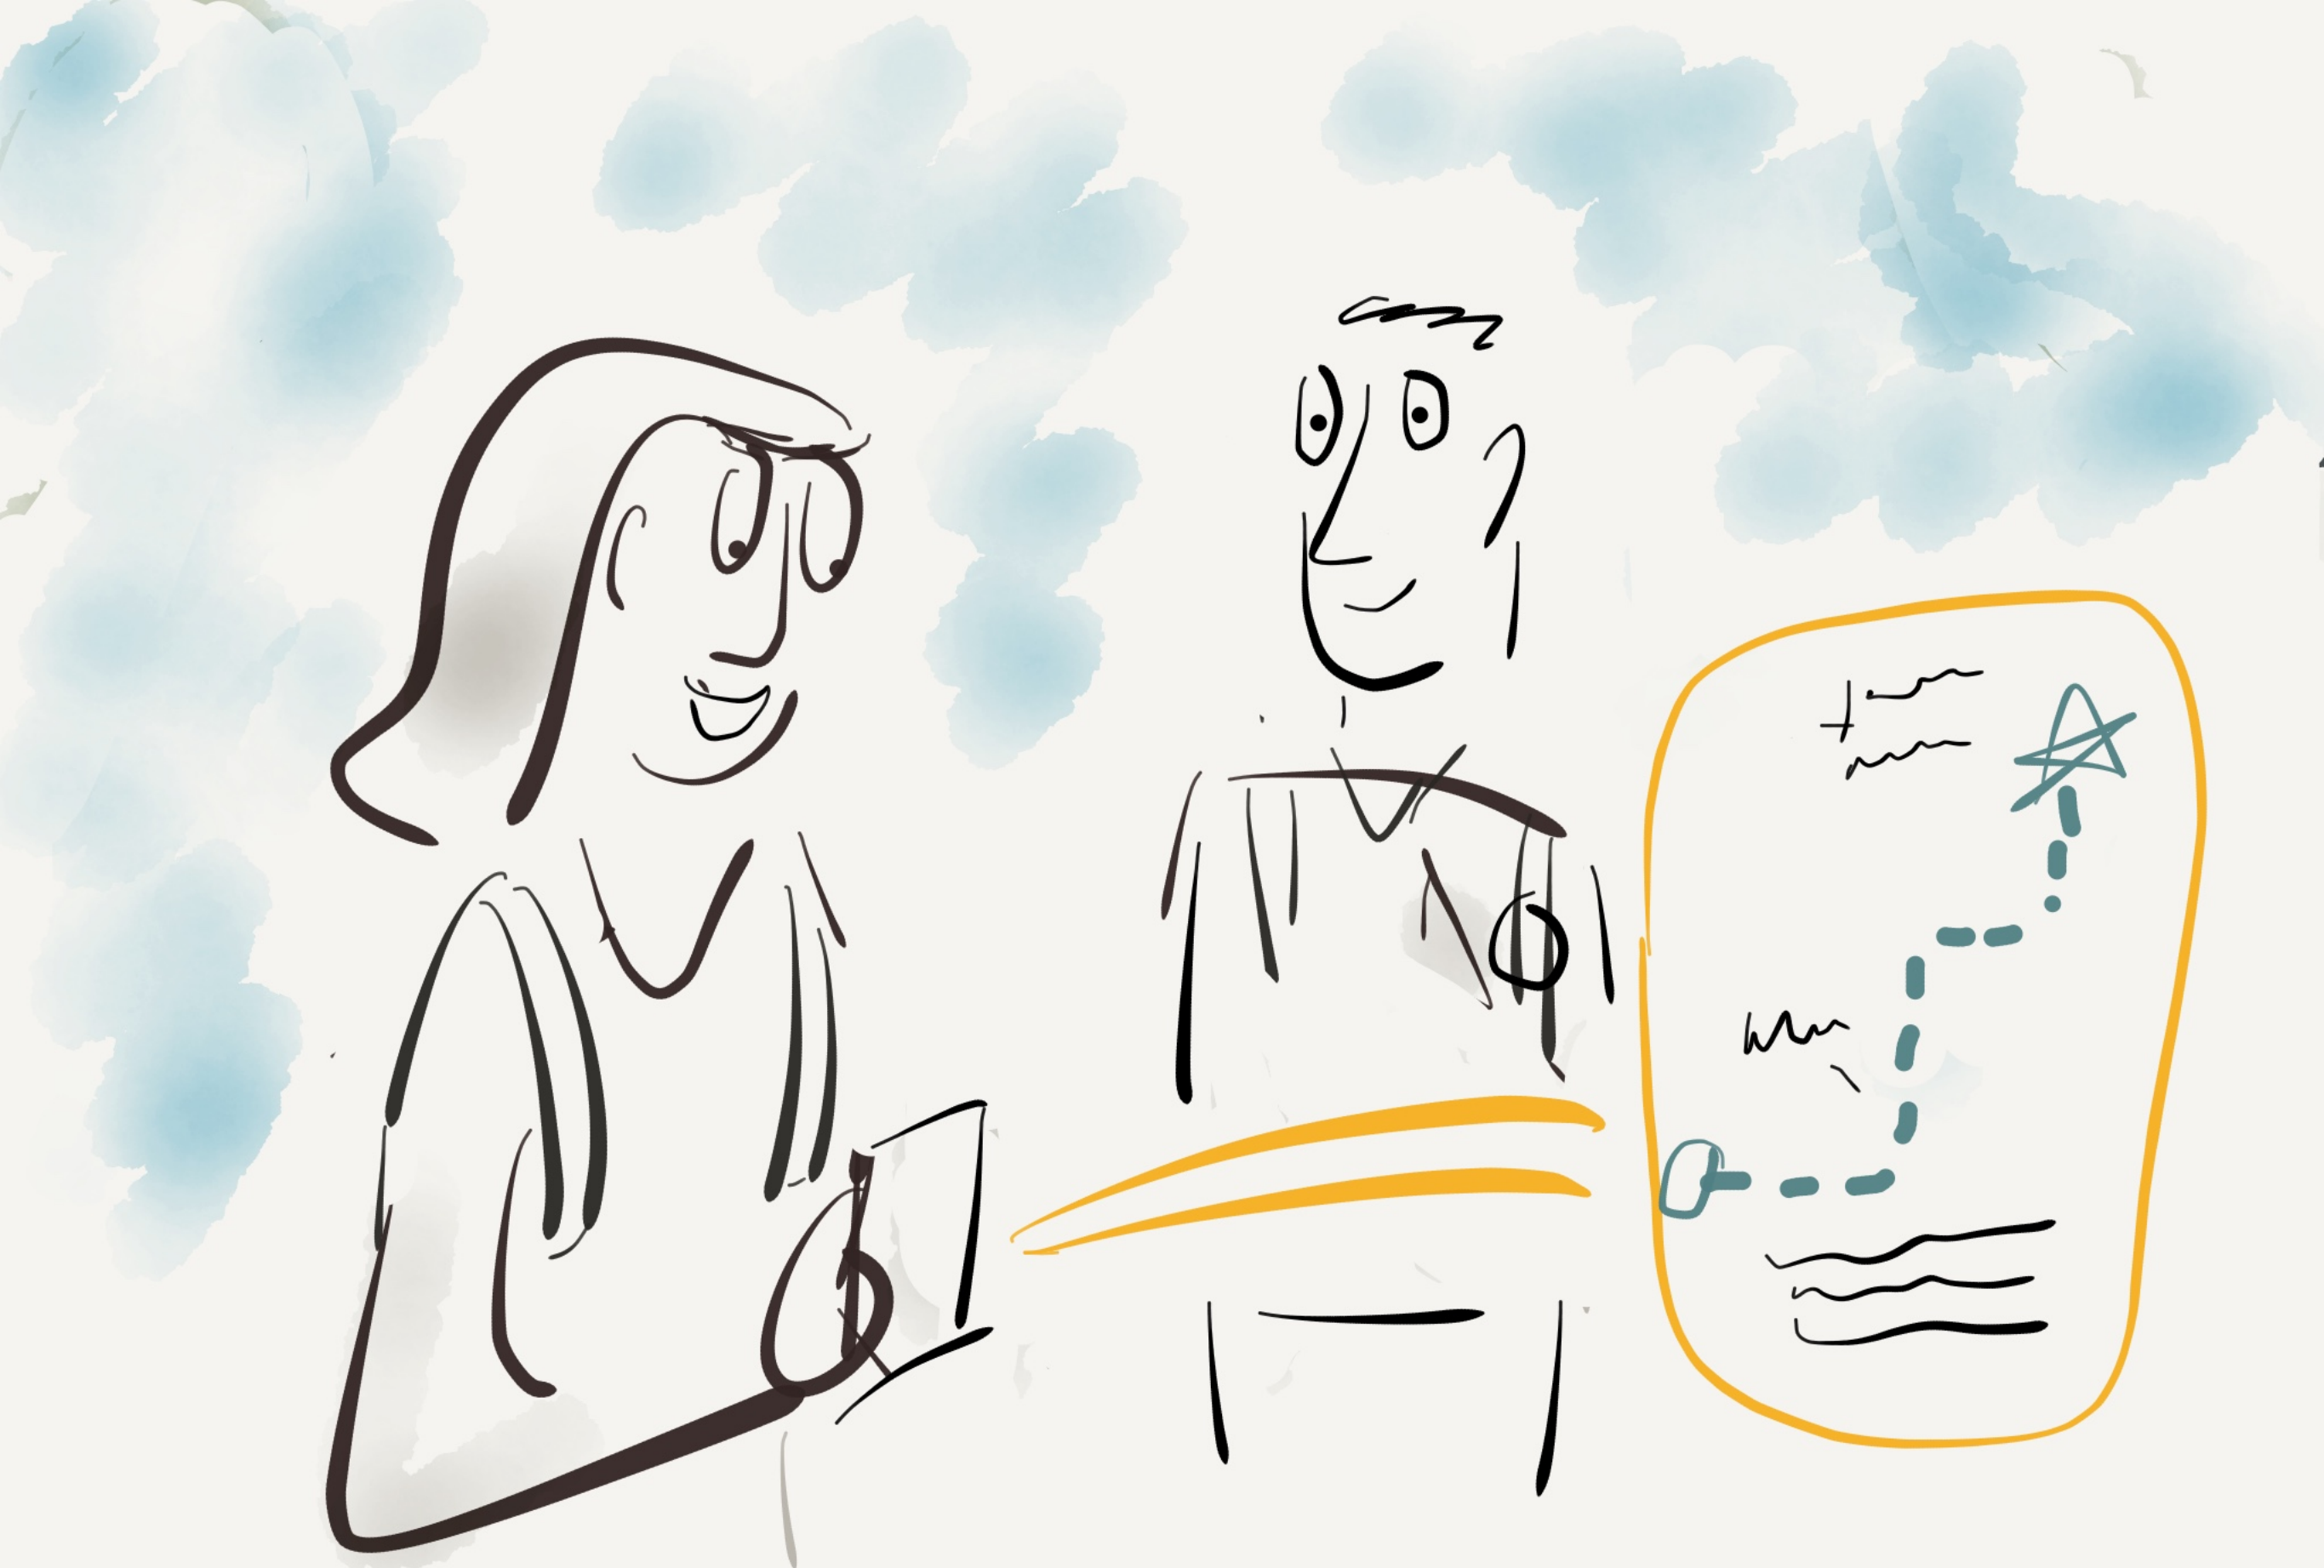

He can recommend his favorite local spots.

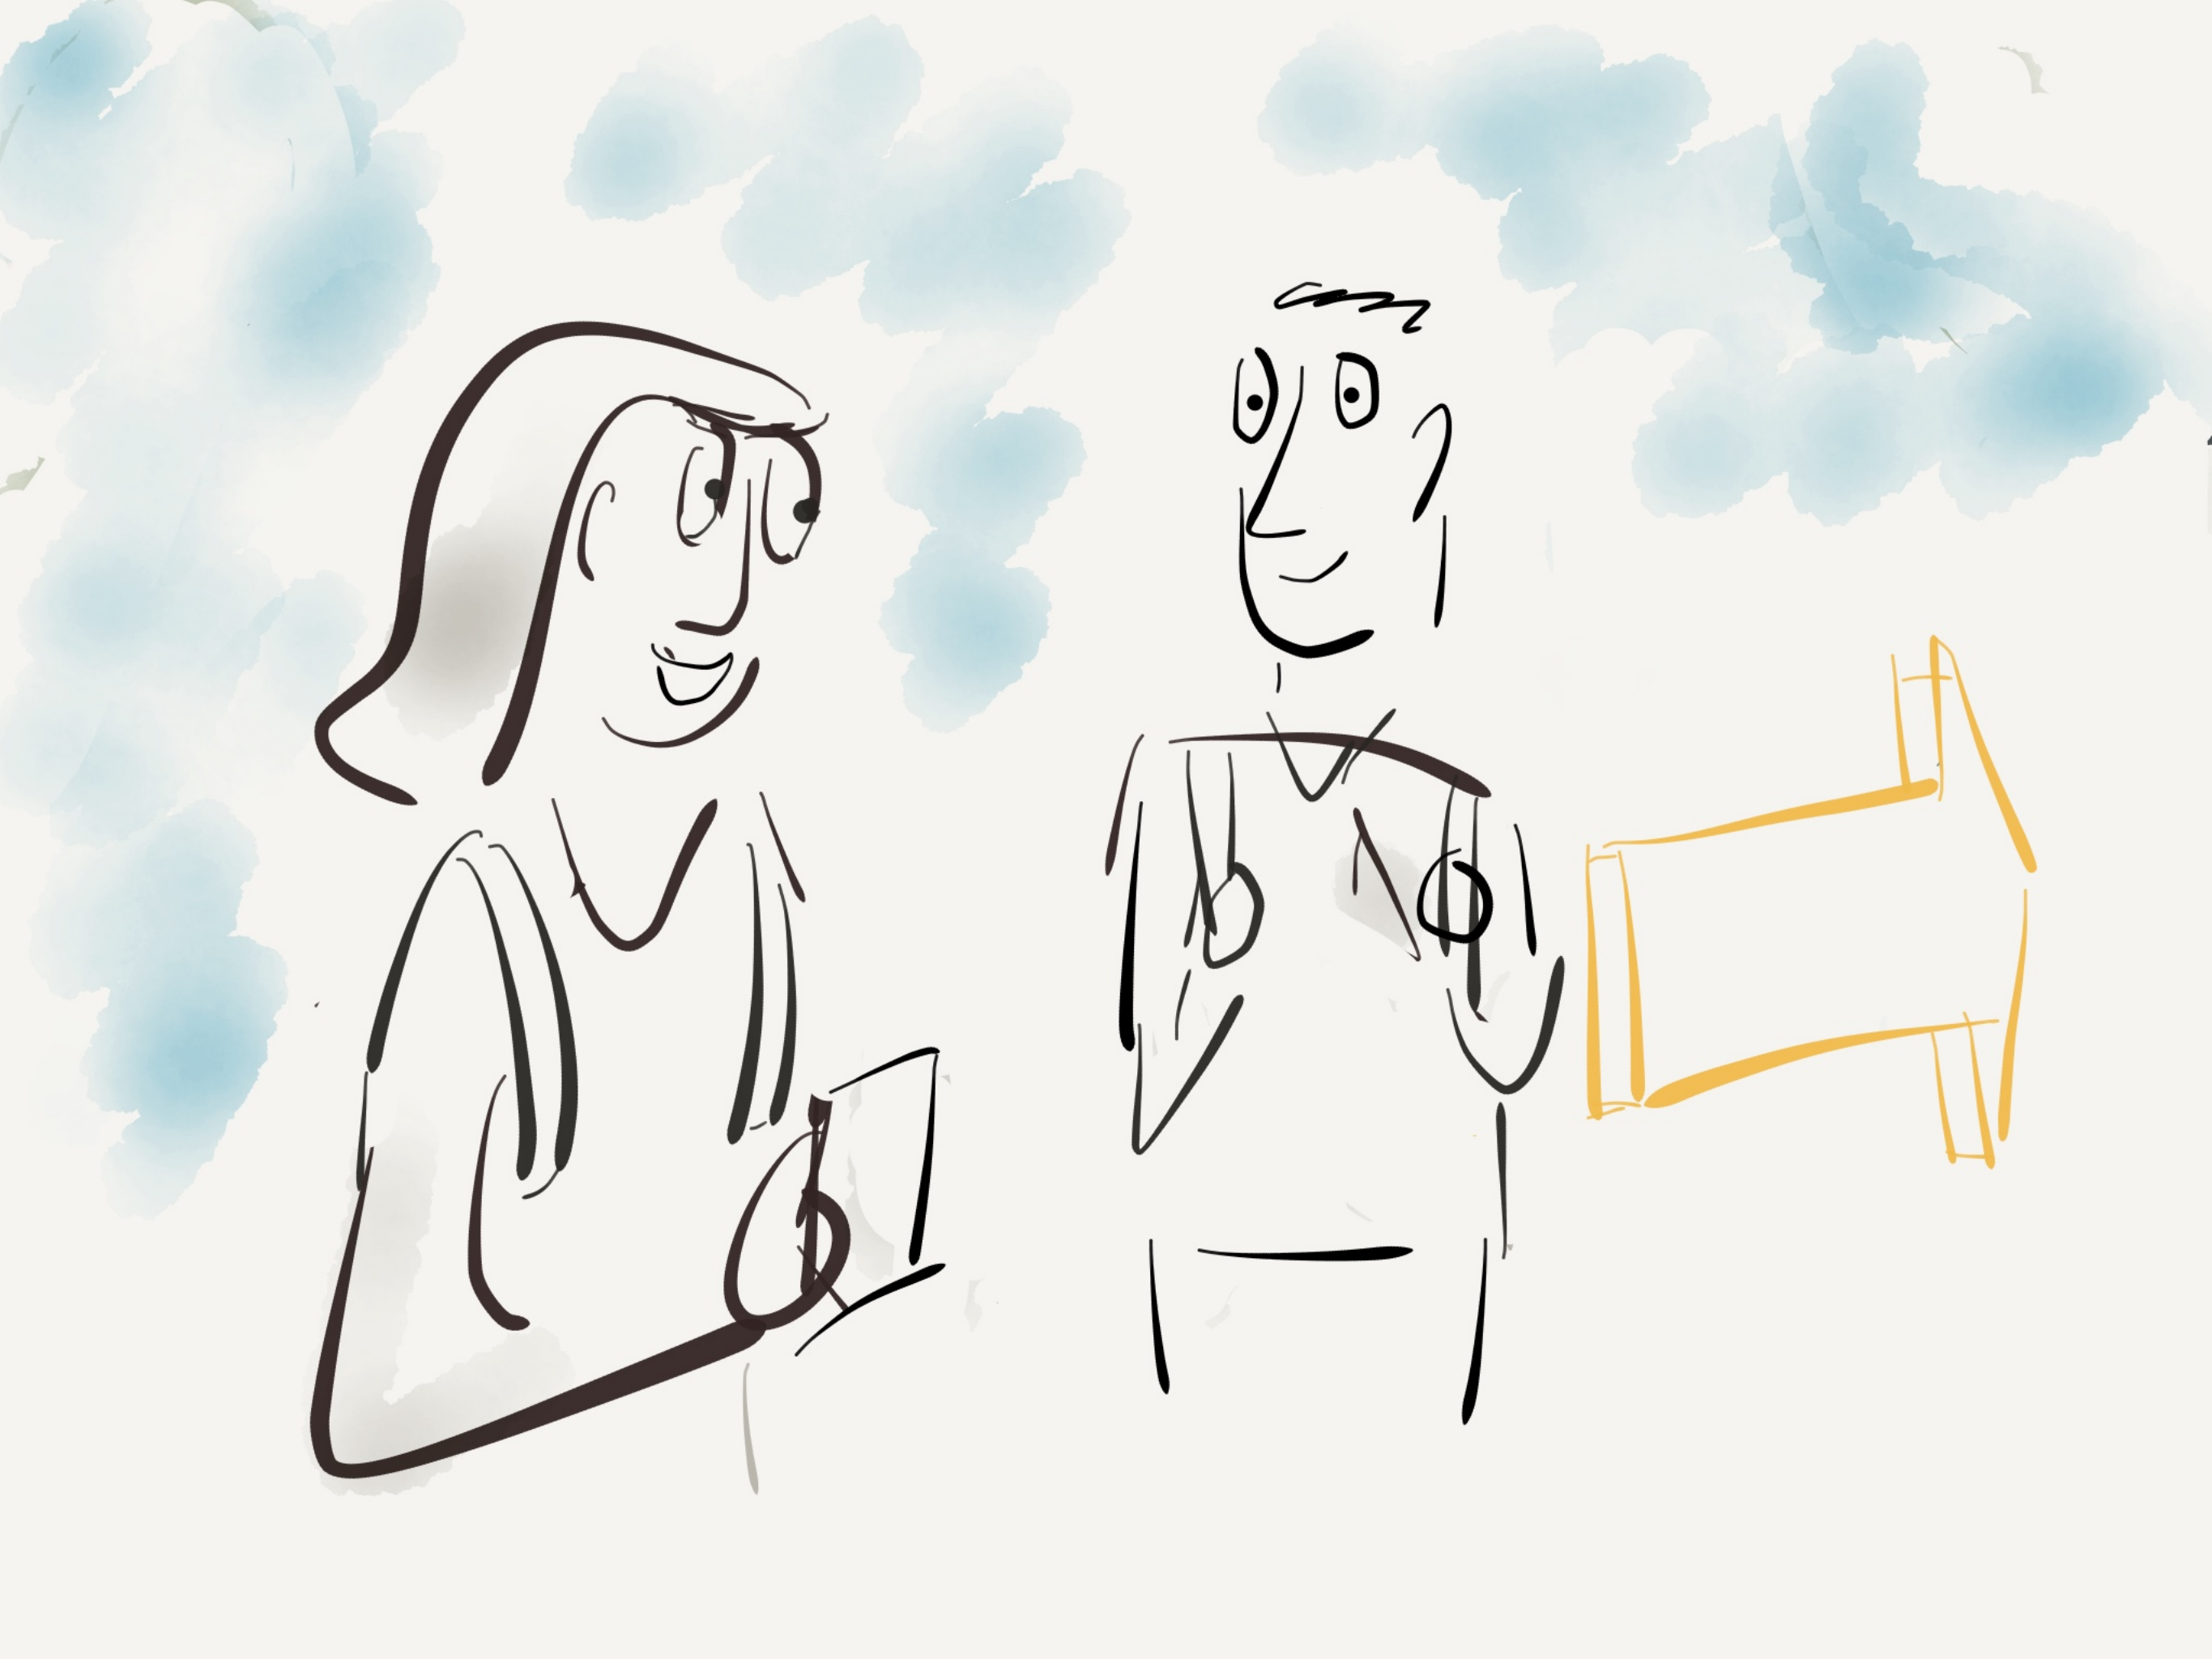

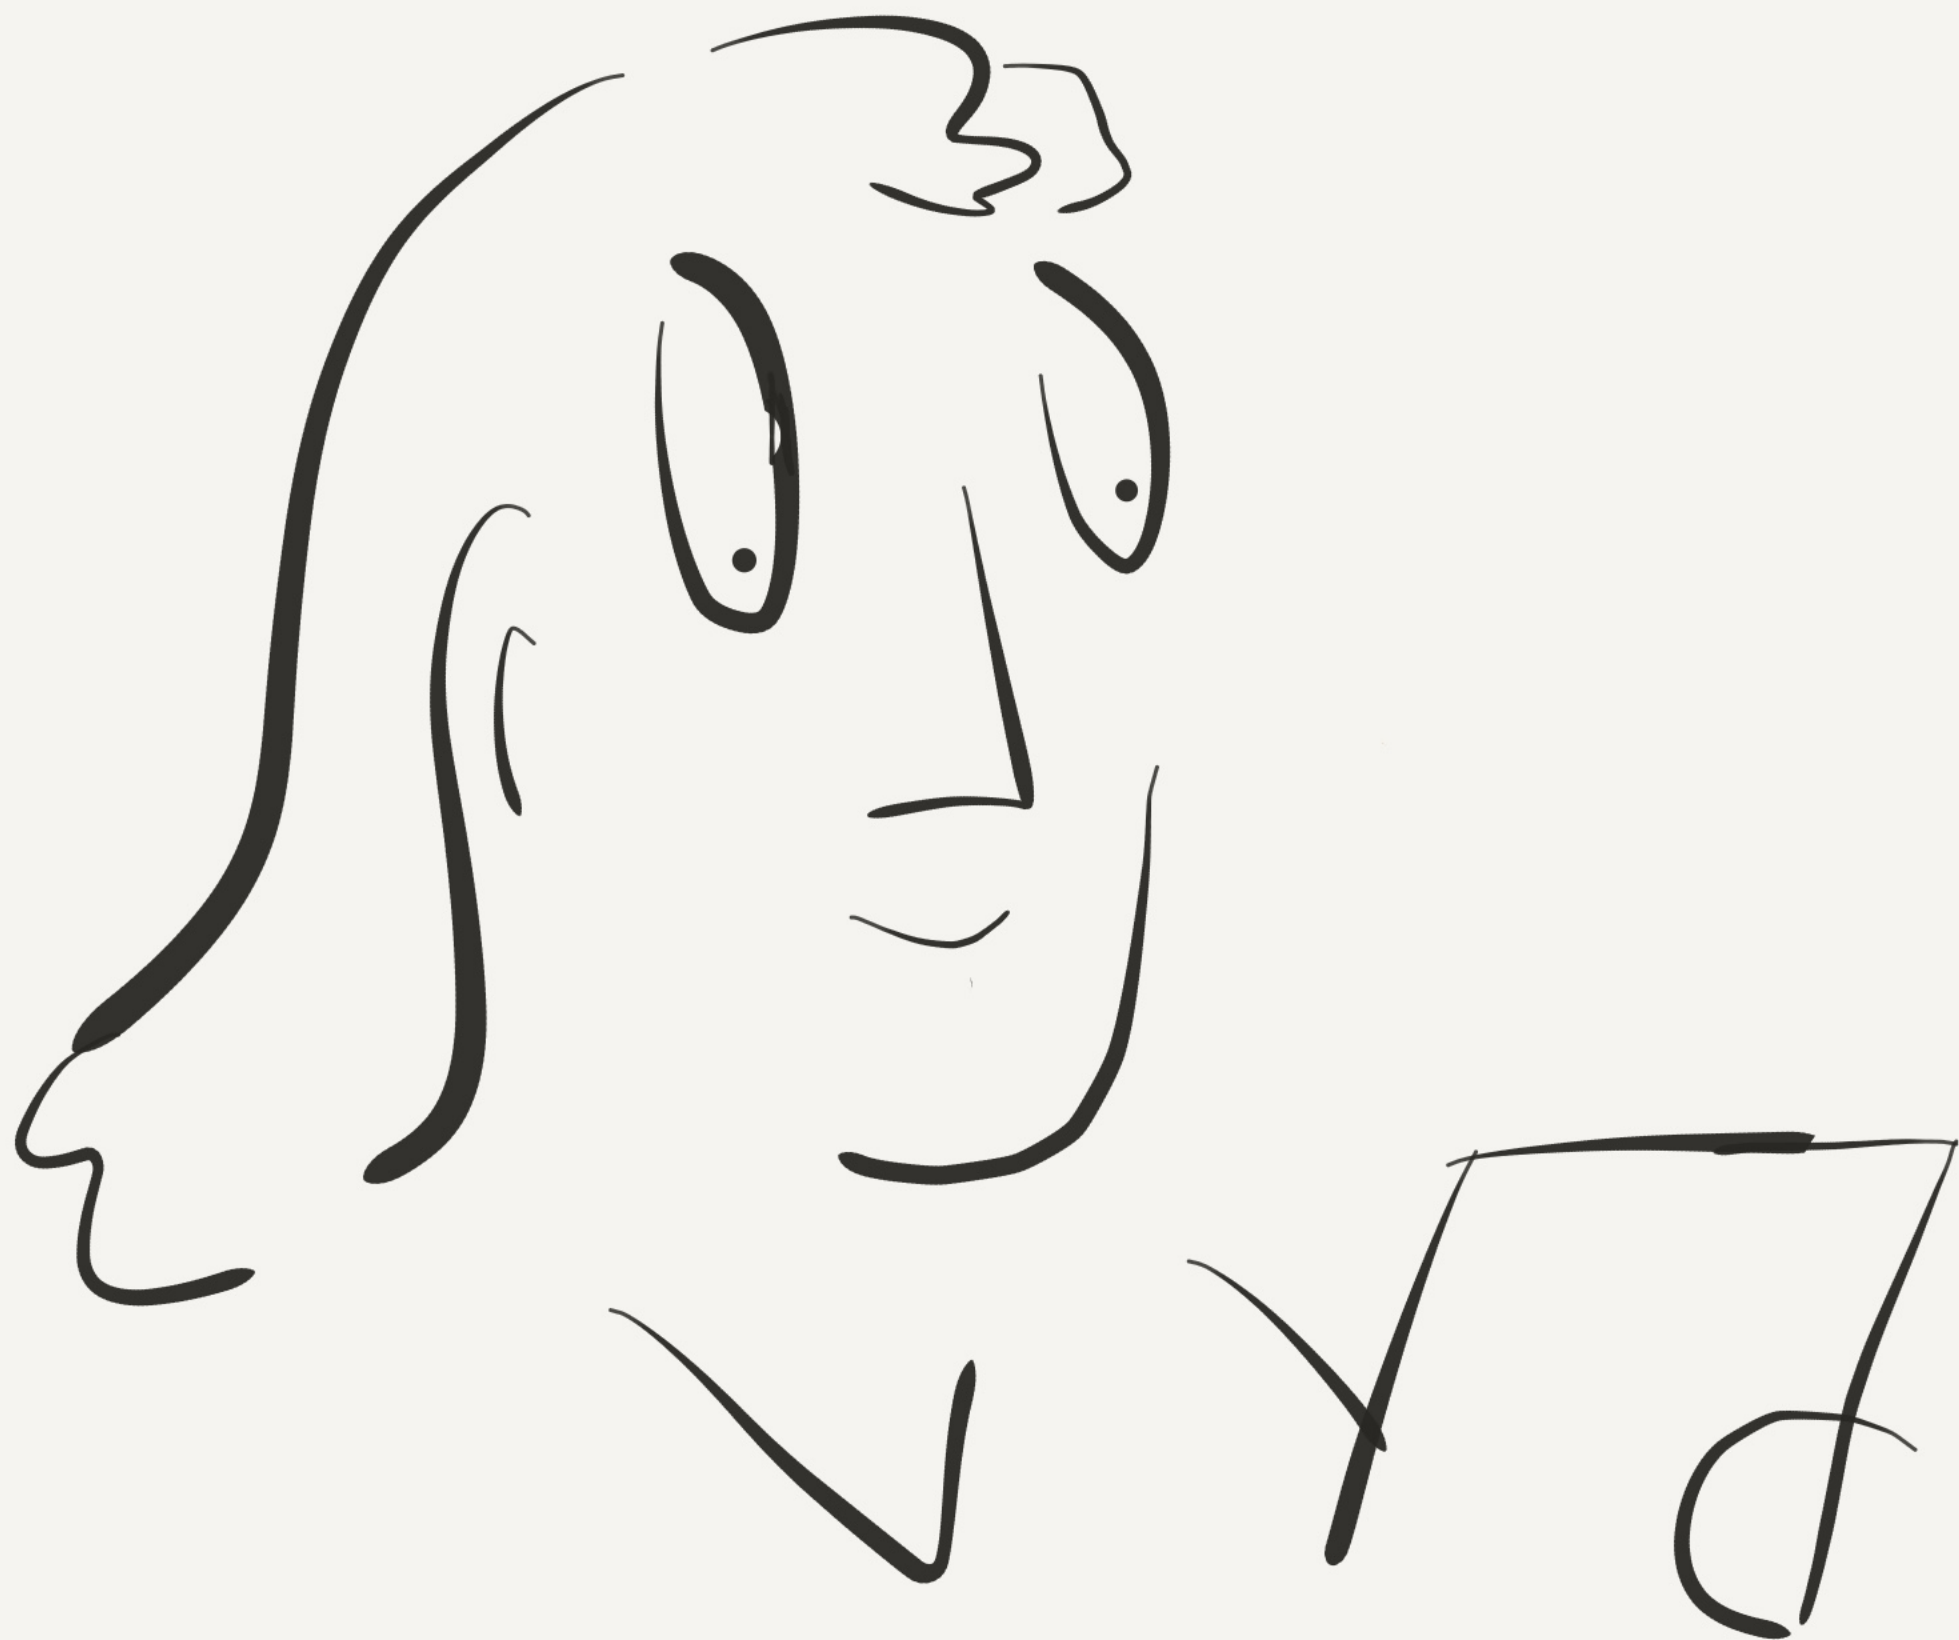

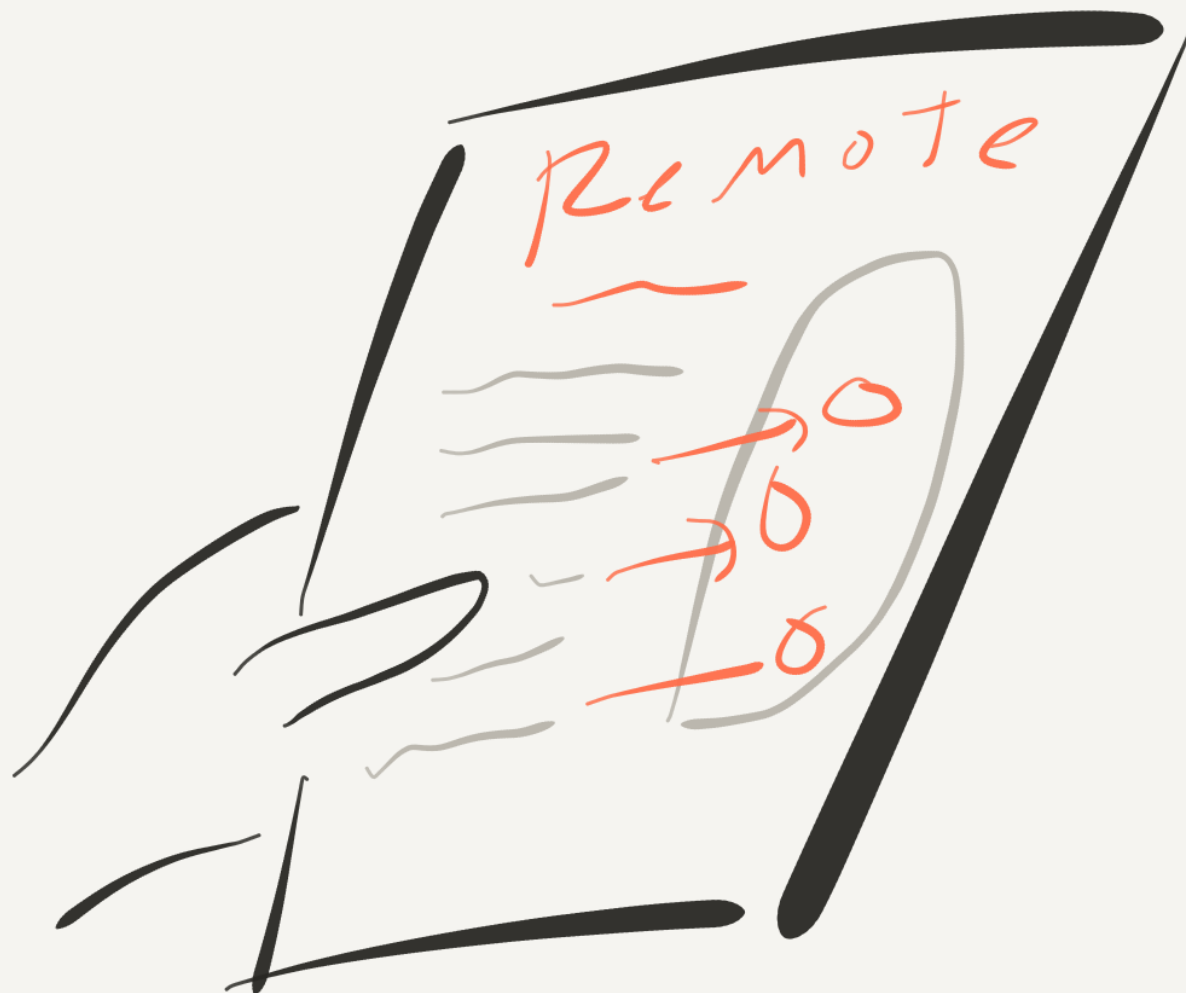

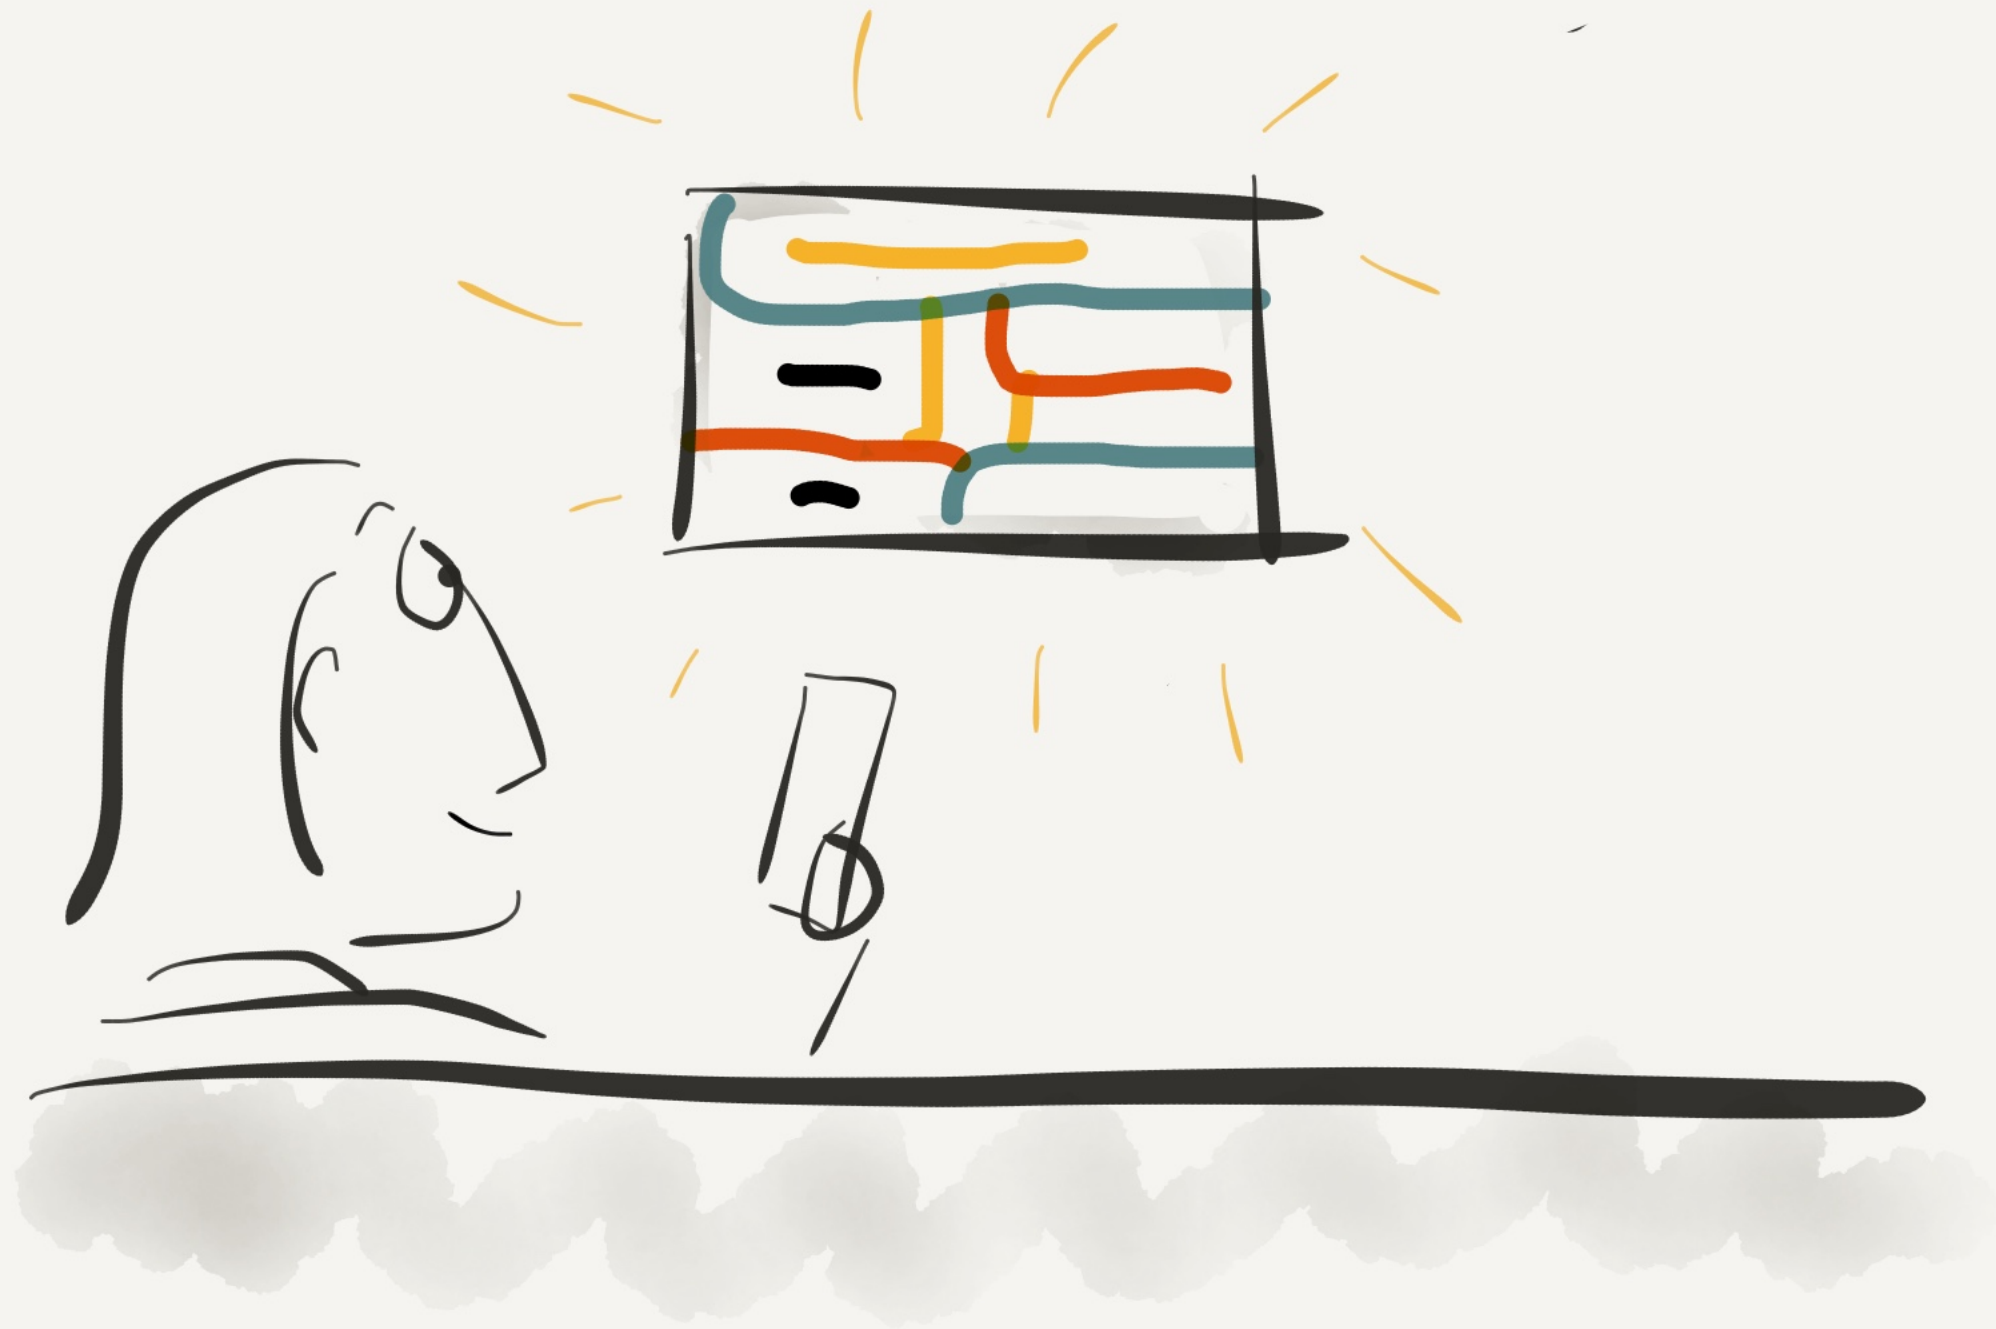

Share his favorite local routes.

Walk his guests...

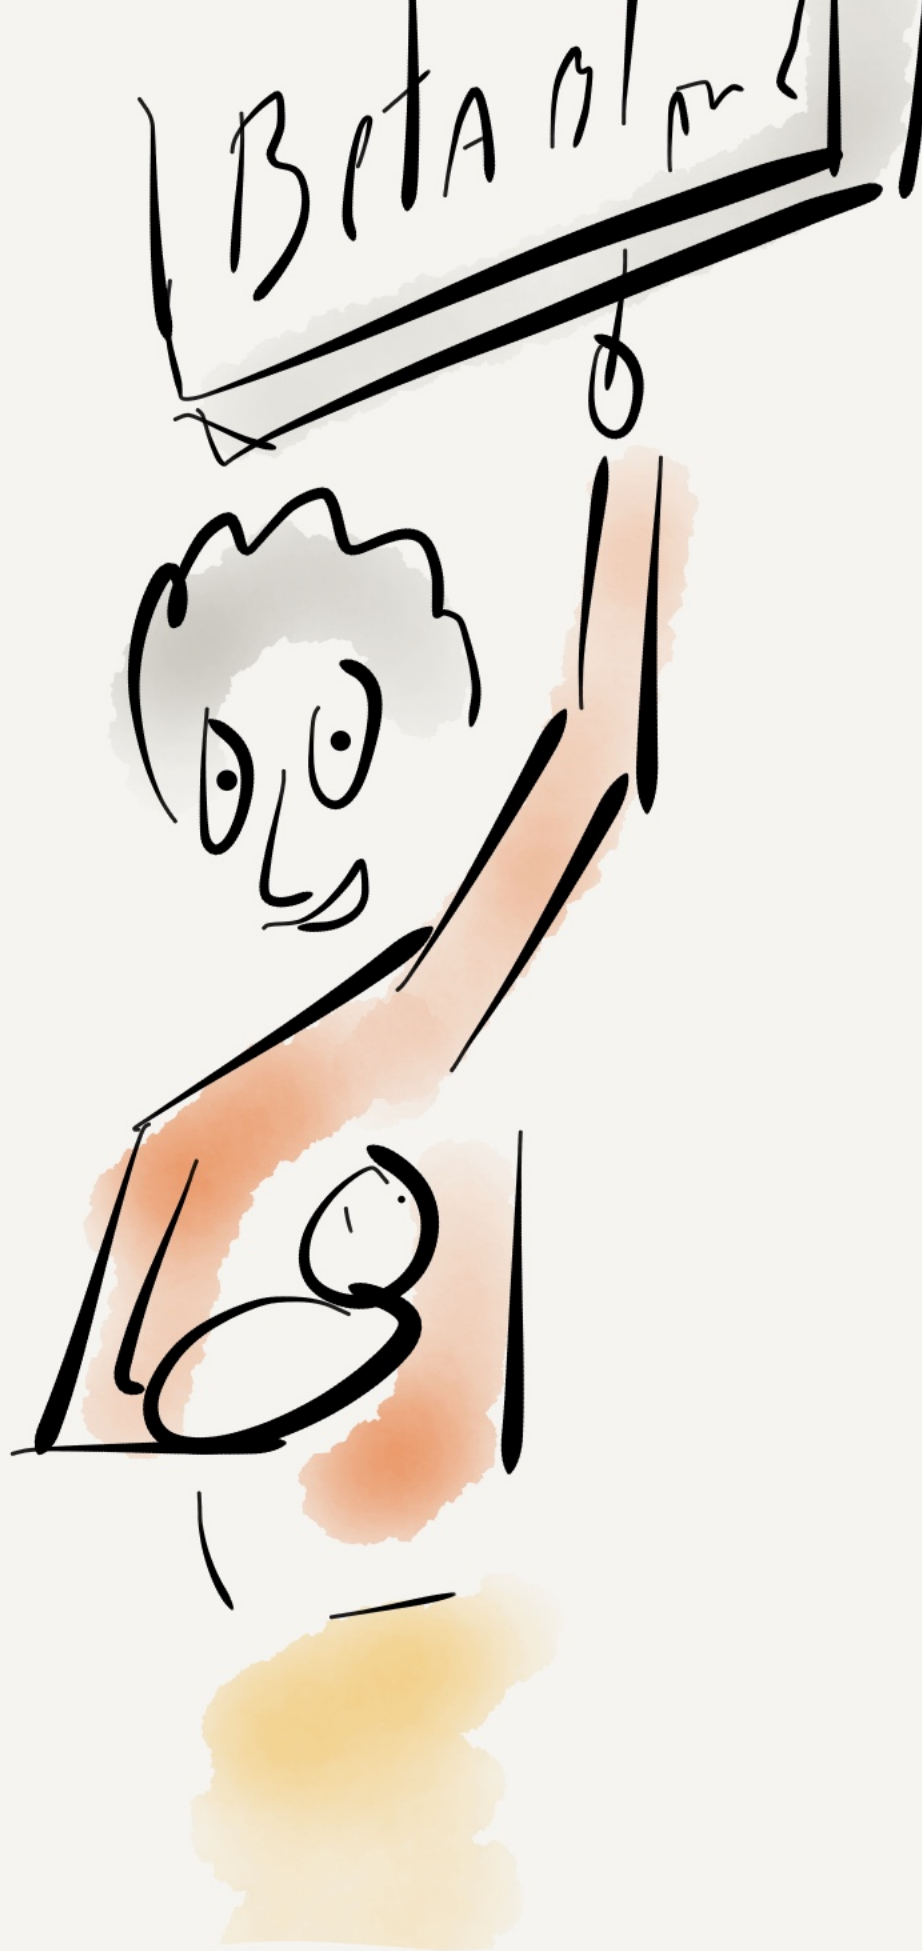

...through the ins and outs of his home.

...and the best hidden gems of his city.

Thanks to Hostfully, Bob's guests know how much he really cares about them.

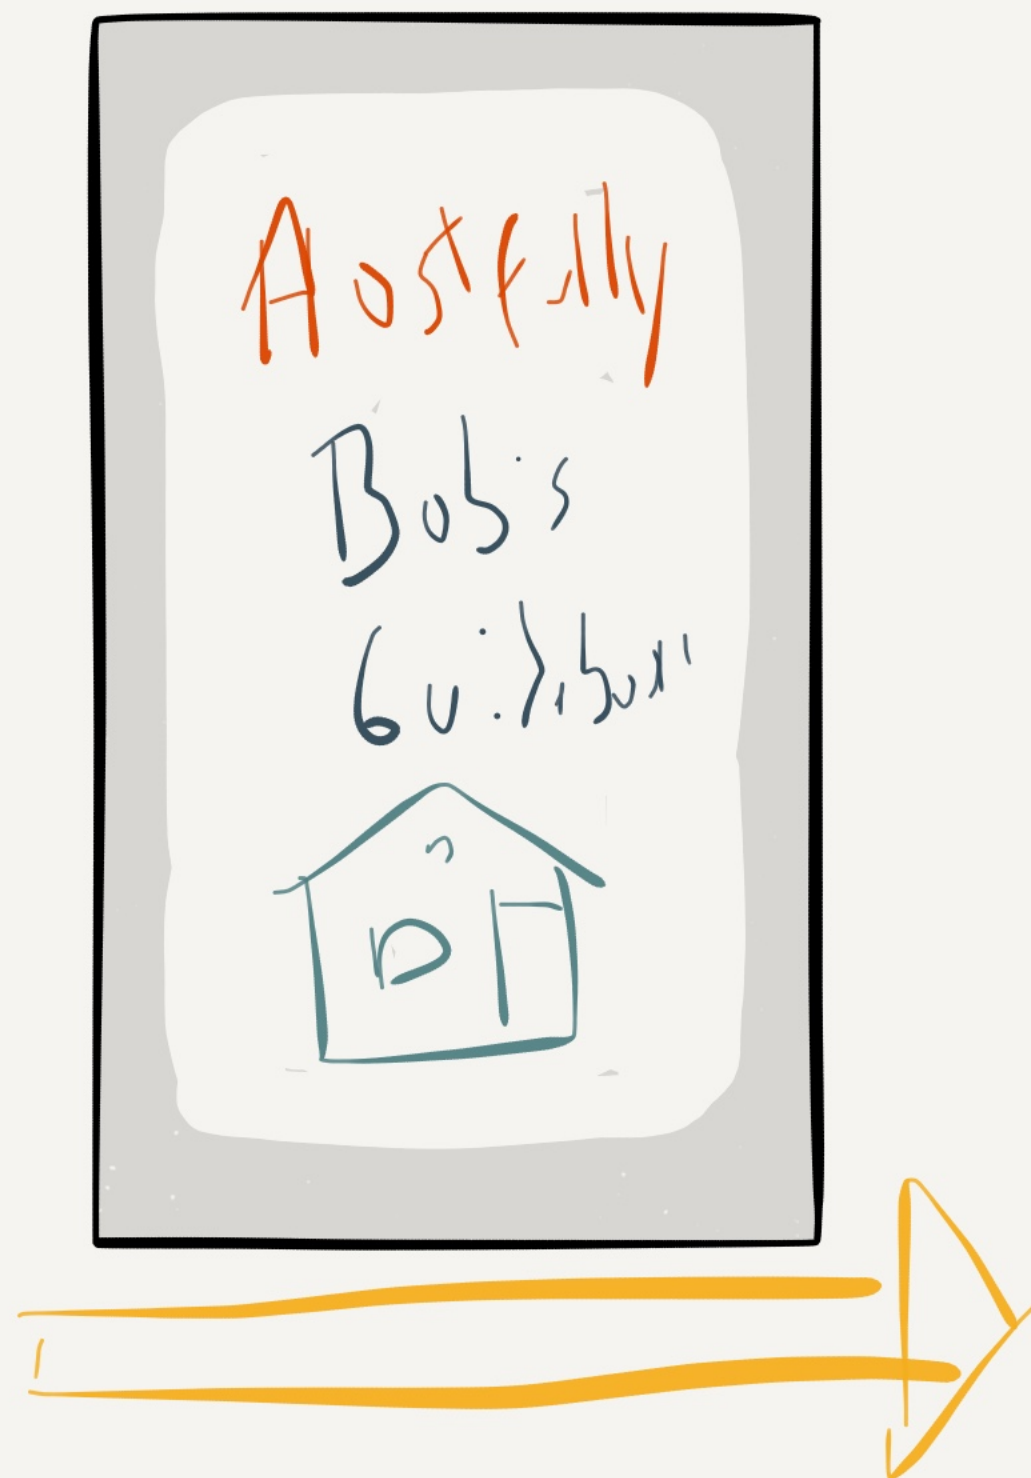

Using Hostfully, Bob gives every guest his personal guide that unlocks all the cool stuff about his home

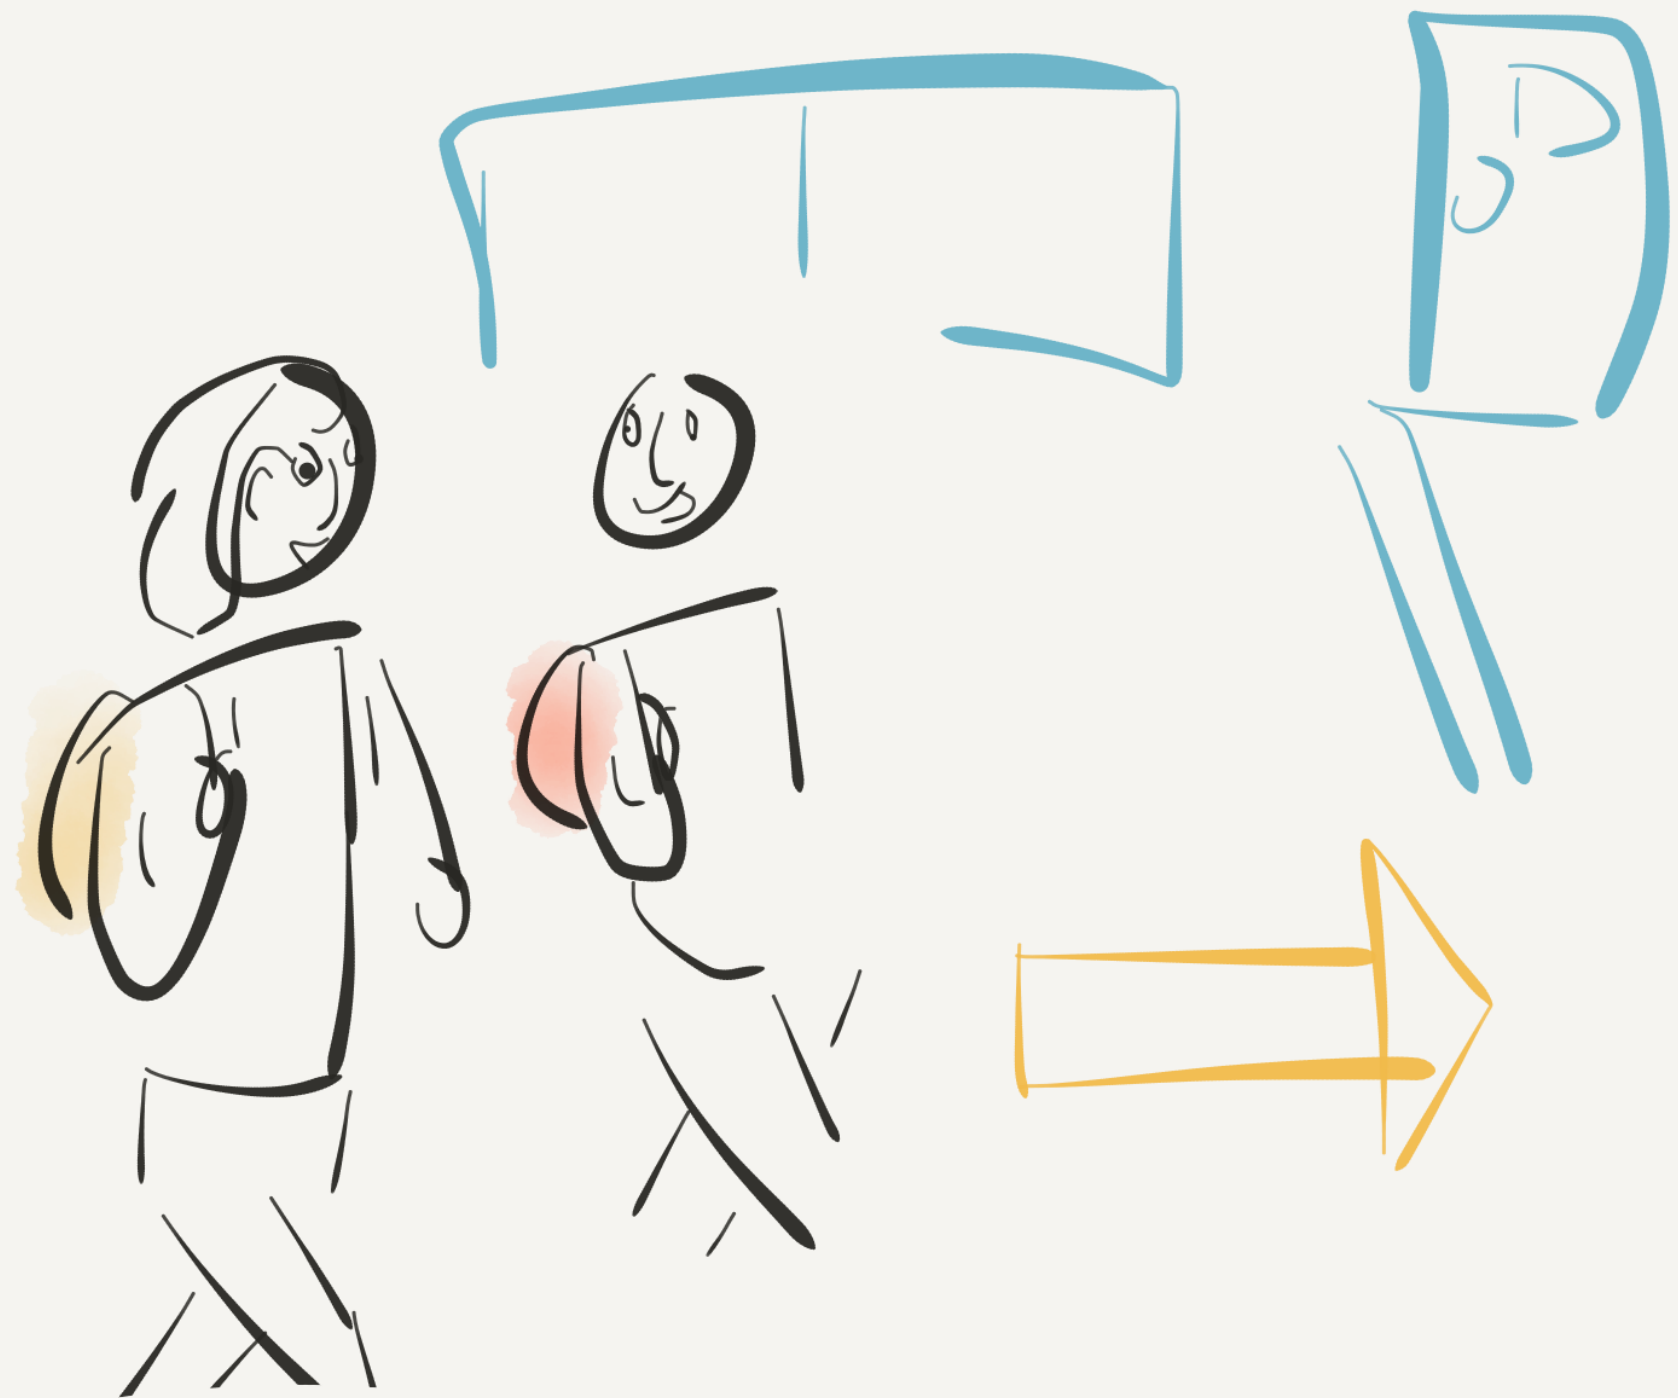

Guests get a copy of Bob's custom guide in print

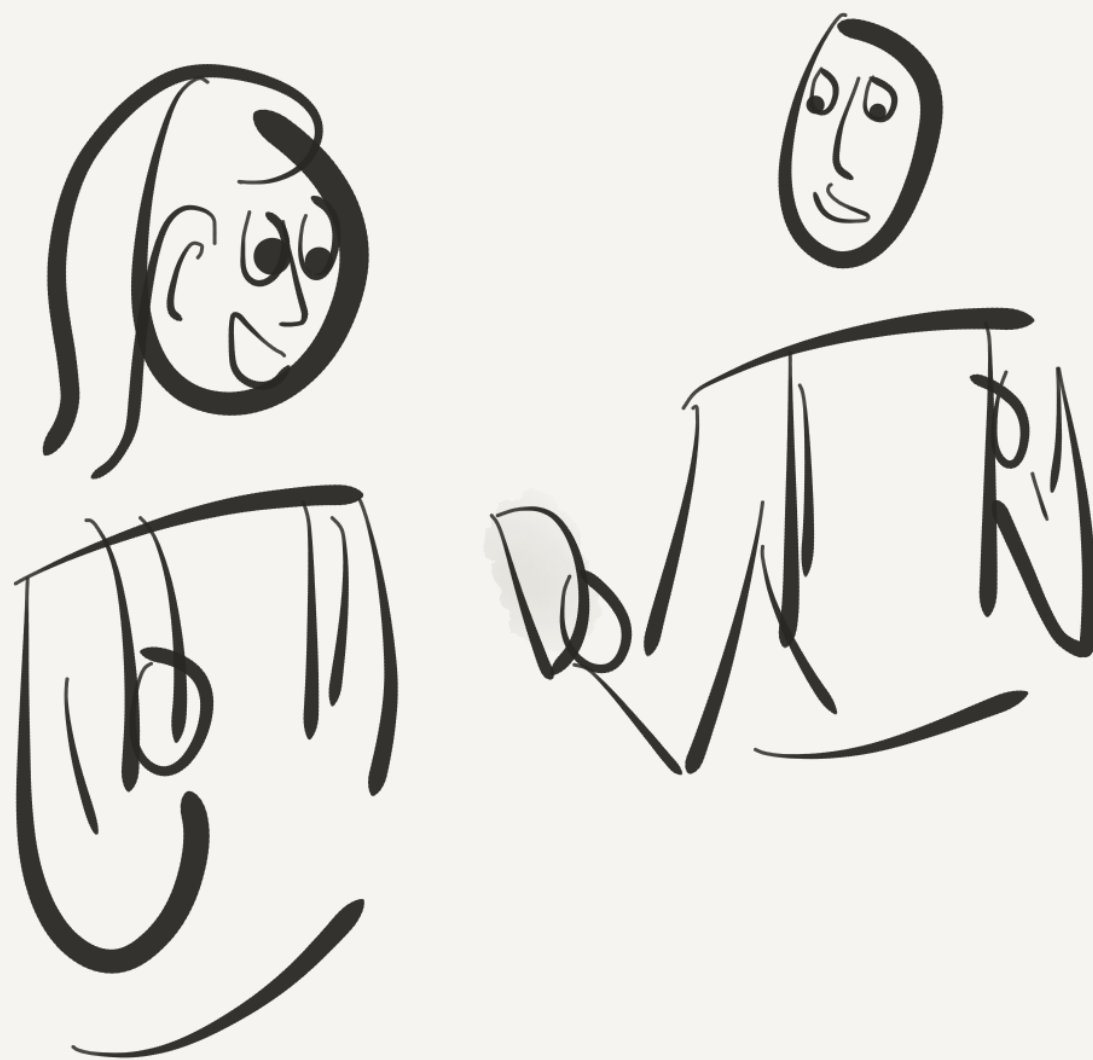

...on their computer...

...and of course, on their phones.

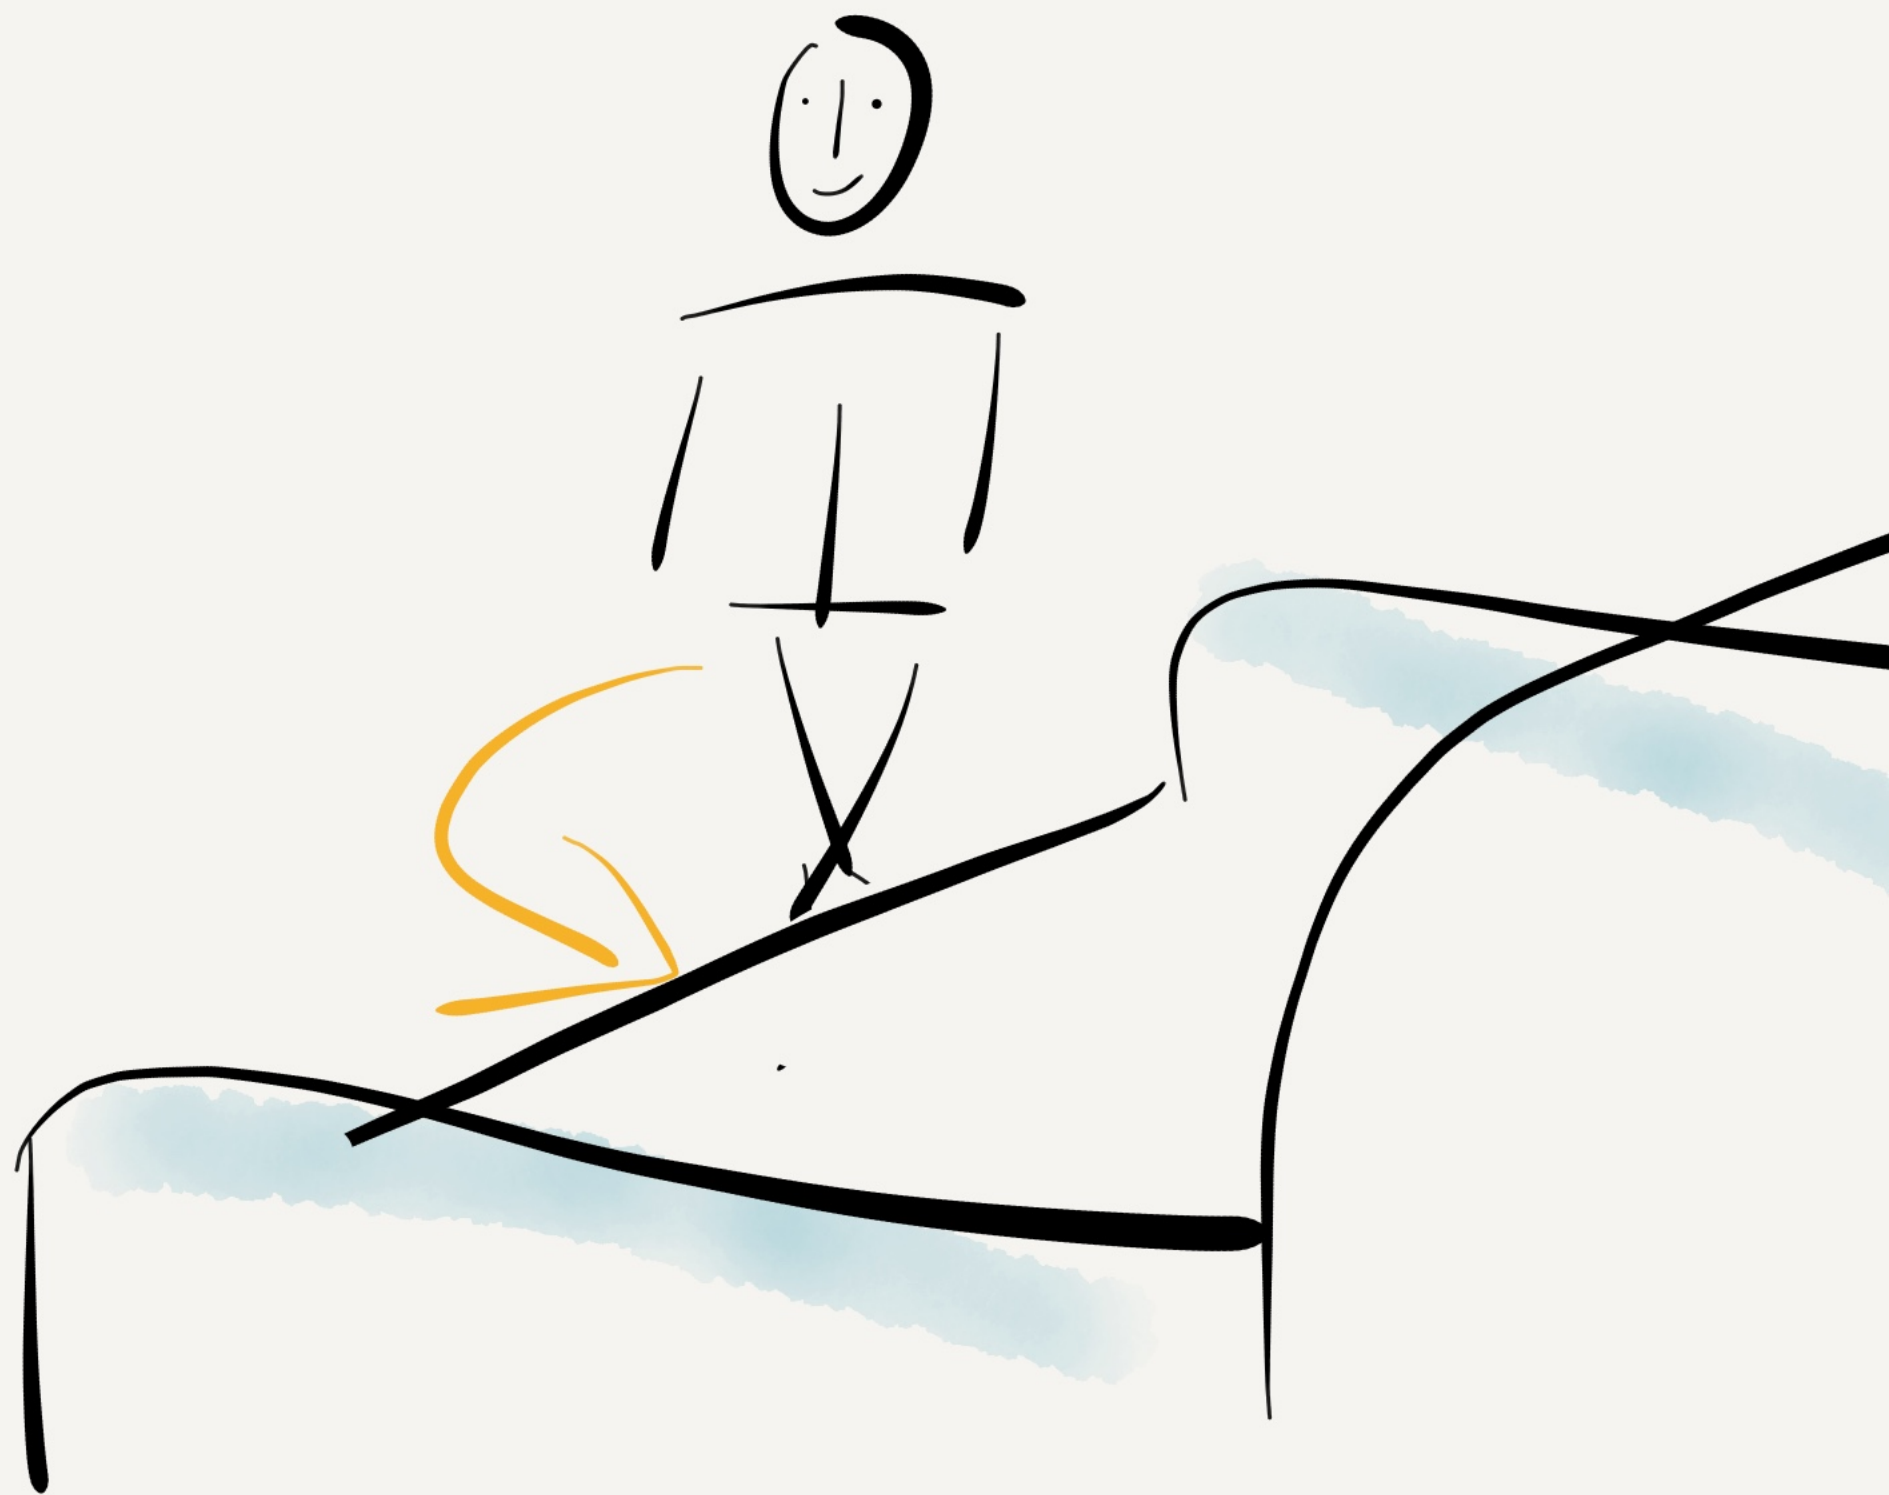

Now, Bob's guests...

We loved
this job

...get more out of their stay at Bob's.

Are Bob's guests happier?

You betcha. And now...

...that Bob gets better ratings...

15

...it makes Bob a lot happier too.
